PARISIAN THRONGS CHEER EISENHOWER

This was the scene today in Paris as President Eisenhower and French President Charles de Gaulle rode in triumph up the Champs Elysees from the Place de la Concorde. Parisians by the thousands turned out to cheer them. After the pomp of the motorcade, de Gaulle and Eisenhower settled down to begin their conferences. See story on page 4. (AP Wirephoto)

One Vote Upholds Works Bill Veto

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House today sustained by one vote President Eisenhower's veto of a $1,216,000,000 public works appropriation bill.

The roll call vote was 274 in favor of passing the bill over the veto and 138 against.

A two-thirds vote is necessary to override. Thus, this tally would have gone the other way on a single switch of a vote.

The outcome upheld Eisenhower's record of never having had a veto overridden, although there have been 144 of them in the last six and one-half years.

The House action kills the bill, and the Senate will get no chance to act on the veto.

The vote was so close that a recheck was ordered after the roll was first called.

Rep. Clement W. Miller (D-Corte Madera) voted for overriding the veto.

The $1,215,477,808 appropriation bill provides financing for several hundred public works projects in just about every congressional district. Most of them are river and harbor and flood control jobs. For years it has been known as the "pork barrel" bill and has been a congressional favorite because of its popularity in the home districts.

Eisenhower vetoed it last week because it provided funds for 67 projects in 32 states for which his budget program had made no provision. It exceeded his money requests by about 30 million dollars.

Seven of Eisenhower's direct or indirect vetoes have come this year. The House came within four votes of upsetting his veto of a rural electrification bill last June 30, two days after the Senate voted to override.

CLEAR SKIES FORECAST FOR HOLIDAY WEEKEND

The five-day forecast said no rain is in sight and temperatures will hold near normal for the season.

There will be coastal fog and overcast, however.

Forecaster W. J. Denney said barometric pressure is falling over the Pacific Northwest. As this occurs, the shallow cool layer of air over the ocean will be pressed against the coastal hills of Northearn and Central California, to deepen and spill into the Central Valley.

Fire Board Irked At Appointment

MAID OF CALIFORNIA — Linda Marie Hines, 17-year-old brunette from Sacramento, was crowned Maid of California today by Gov. Edmund G. Brown as the 105th State Fair opened. A large crowd stood in bright sunshine to witness the opening ceremonies in front of the Counties Building in the heart of the fairgrounds at Sacramento. Officials predict 900,000 persons will attend the exposition during its 12-day run ending Sept. 13. (AP Wirephoto)

Tiburon Commission Hits Supervisors

By DEEDEE ABRAMSON

The Marin County Board of Supervisors' appointment of Fred Mantegani to the Tiburon Fire Protection District Commission was sharply criticized by district officials today, and a recall action threatened against Mantegani even before the new appointee is seated.

Commission members were outspoken in their resentment at the board action, which they held "unjust and unfair" in that it was taken without discussion with or recommendation from the commission.

"This appointment to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Commissioner Howard I. McGill in August should be a matter of public discussion by the commission," Chairman Jon F. Stanton said. "We had asked that interested candidates for the post submit their qualifications to the commission for consideration at our Sept. 9 meeting.

"I feel the supervisors' action is not fair or ethical. There was no consideration of the five runners-up in the April 7 election or of the petitions which are to be submitted at our meeting next week."

Supervisor Vera L. Schultz, who represents South Marin, explained that it was the advice of the county counsel, that "the board of supervisors has the responsibility of making an appointment and usually takes the recommendation from the district commission itself."

"We assumed that the commission would recommend John P. Eichorn for the post, because of its previous policy of filling commission vacancies from the election standings," Mrs. Schultz said.

Red Invaders Advance On Laotian City

COMBINED AP & UPI

VIENTIANE, Laos — Communist North Vietnamese troops in regimental strength advanced within 13 miles of the city of Sam Neua late yesterday, Laotian army commander Oaune Rathikone said today.

Ouane, who returned yesterday from a brief inspection trip from Sam Neua, said he received messages last night saying 3,500 Communist troops were continuing their advance toward the strategic town of Sam Neua, which is the capital of Sam Neua Province.

SEIZE VILLAGES

The Communists have captured or occupied some 80 villages along the Nama River across about a 35-mile front.

The Communist drive began Sunday in coordinated attacks on 15 villages. Apparently there was little actual fighting. Oaune said "there is little or no fighting right now that I know of."

The attack along Nam Ma River at one point supported by 105-mm. howitzers evidently fired from inside North Viet Nam, Laotian officers said.

FROM VIET NAM

Gen. Ouane said it appeared that at least 80 per cent of the attackers were Vietminh (North Vietnamese) or Thai tribesmen trained in North Viet Nam.

The government troops were reported falling back to a defense line between the Nam Ma River and Sam Neua town.

Oaune said Laotian government troops will defend Sam Neua. This would be a change of tactics, since previously the army has preferred to disperse into the jungle rather than commit troops thinly stretched along the border defense lines to the numerically superior enemy.

Hamilton Aircraft Aiding Mexicans Menaced By Flood

The 4th Air Force at Hamilton Air Force Base late yesterday dispatched a plane and helicopter to a remote region of Mexico where 29,000 persons were reported to be in the path of an imminent flood.

The Air Force acted on request of the Mexican Foreign Office to speed rescue to residents of Ciudad Obregon and surrounding territory in southwest Sonora state.

Heavy rains sent high waters spilling over the Alvarado Obregon Dam to bring the Yaqui River near flood height, the Associated Press reported.

Fear was expressed that the dam, weakened by a recent series of earthquakes, might collapse, said a spokesman at the 4th Air Force Rescue Coordination Center.

An SA16 Albatross with four paramedics in addition to its crew was dispatched by the 41st Air Rescue Squadron at Hamilton, along with a helicopter.

Capt. H. H. Cole of Novato, pilot of the Albatross, will be military mission commander at the danger area, the 4th Air Force announced. Capt. C. Hamrick of Novato piloted the 'copter.

At the scene, the Hamilton craft were to be assisted by four Army planes from Ft. Huachua, Ariz., 160 miles north of Ciudad Obregon.

Nehru Reports India's Crisis Has Lessened

COMBINED AP & UPI

NEW DELHI — Premier Jawaharlal Nehru told a tense capacity crowd in Parliament today that India's defense crisis had been eased by the withdrawal of Lt. Gen. K. S. Thimayya's resignation as army chief of staff.

Nehru heaped praise on Defense Minister V. K. Krishna Menon, making no mention of the fact that he too had offered to resign in the crisis touched off by his alleged playing politics with the armed forces.

The premier also had nothing to say about the nation's other chiefs of staff, Vice Adm. R. D. Katari and Air Marshal S. Mukerjee, who handed in their resignations along with Thimayya's. It appeared likely, however, that they would follow the general's example and continue in their posts.

Nehru said there is no truth to reports that Menon had been allowing favoritism or political factors to influence army promotions.

Calcutta Rocked By New Violence

CALCUTTA, India (AP)—Violence erupted in Calcutta again tonight.

Communist-led food rioting yesterday resulted in seven killed. Thirty were injured.

The rioters today were believed by police to be hoodlums who had taken over what started as a Communist-inspired student protest against high rice prices.

Supervisors Deny Tax Refund Claims

By RANDALL GOULD

Tax refund claims of 316 Marinites to a total of $105,000 were rejected on a limited basis by the Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday after nearly three hours of discussion.

Backed by about 25 of the claimants, Albin L. Bjorklund, Sausalito attorney, appeared for a proceeding the very nature of which was doubtful at the outset.

Some thought it a hearing, but Leland H. Jordan, county counsel, advised it was "not basically a hearing at present."

Everybody concerned seemed pretty well agreed that it wasn't a judicial proceeding, but after discussion Bjorklund presented legal basis for the claimants.

Confusion even hung around the board's action last month in reopening a matter in which it had previously rejected the claims for refunds on taxes paid in 1955, 1956 and 1957 on the ground that an increase in Marin assessed valuations by 26 per cent in 1955, ordered by the state Board of Equalization, was illegal.

The final negative action of the supervisors was based on the single issue of the statute of limitations. The board accepted Jordan's advice that the time limit for appealing the payments had expired.

This came after decision not to rule on other matters brought up by Bjorklund, and with suggestions that Bjorklund go to the courts—a procedure difficult to figure out, he explained, due to varying positions of the many claimants.

At the outset Supervisor William D. Fusselman recalled that he had lost out on a motion last week to have Bjorklund obtain depositions to save time. He offered to renew this effort.

Supervisor Vera Schultz, absent previously, inquired why it

Early Ruling On State Land Closing Slated

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown said today he will make a decision by Friday on the proposal to close about 70 million acres of California's public land to recreation in a forest fire prevention move. He said the decision may come sooner.

Brown had no appointments scheduled today for discussion of the proposal, revealed at yesterday's news conference.

Brown tolds newsmen then he was talking with state officials to determine if he should close state-controlled land to hunters, fishermen, campers and hikers.

He said it would stop all hunting and fishing during the closure period and would limit camping and hiking to supervised areas. The governor said the closing was requested by representatives of the lumber industry and state officials.

SPECTACULAR BURNING SEEN OVER BIG AREA

A spectacular controlled burn in Larkspur was seen for several miles last night as flames shot about 30 feet in the air and smoke billowed even higher.

The Larkspur Fire Department put the torch to about one-half acre of brush at the end of Palm court, near the Northwestern Pacific Railroad tracks. The brush piles were considered a potential fire threat to surrounding homes.

The controlled burning concluded at 9:30 p.m.

AFTER HOT DEBATE

Plan For Sausalito Approved In Principle

The Sausalito City Council approved in principle last night a master plan for the city, to the delight of a standing-room-only crowd which had packed the council chamber to witness the animated debate.

The approval came in the form of a resolution by Councilman Philip S. Ehrlich Jr., chief proponent of the plan, and was adopted unanimously.

It now goes to a special subcommittee authorized by the same resolution to have terminology, characterized as "vague" by City Atty. John B. Ehlen, made more specific, and to have other features "brought up to date."

The subcommittee, composed of Councilmen Marjorie B. Brady and George E. Keeney, Ehlen and a member of the planning commission to be named today by Commission President Victor E. Hecht, is to report to the council within two weeks, at which time presumably the council will vote final passage.

Spasmodically throughout the proceedings, the crowd broke into cheers or guffaws at verbal interchanges—mostly between Ehlen, who opposed the plan on grounds that it contributed "to the sum total of human ignorance," and Ehrlich, who remarked, "We've had a modest display of that ignorance tonight."

Actually Ehlen's condemnation of the plan was more specific. "I have read the master plan and I doubt that it includes the required elements (according to California statutes)," he said. After giving several examples, he added, "It is no master plan without a new zoning ordinance and without a new building code."

The plan is vague, he said because it does not clarify "what is suggested, what is

FOR MARIN CITY JOB

Bids On Bonds Asked By Housing Authority

The Marin County Housing Authority has called for bids on nearly three million dollars of temporary bonds, with the money to be used to bring the new Marin City low-rent housing area to within 90 per cent of completion.

Deputy Executive Director Erwin Farley said today the bids will be opened by the housing commissioners at 10 a.m. on Sept. 15 at the housing authority administrative office in Marin City.

Farley said the exact amount is for $2,949,000.

The money will be used to pay off $750,000 in temporary bonds that come due around Oct. 1, and to bring the job almost to completion. Farley said the project is now 38 per cent completed.

Farley also said the authority hopes to open the first 100 units next March, and the remaining 200 units late next summer or early next fall. He said this would be three months ahead of schedule.

The commissioners will call for approximately four million dollars worth of long-term bonds to be bid upon about next March 15, at about the same time the first units are scheduled to be ready for occupancy, Farley reported. These bonds would be used mainly to pay off outstanding temporary bonds.

The $750,000 bond issue carries an interest rate of 1.85 per cent and a $17 premium. That bond issue and the upcoming one are each for six months.

The project is part of the whole redevelopment of Marin City, a wartime housing project for shipyard workers. The low-rent project is located in the southern part of the Marin City bowl area. The remainder of the area will be developed with homes for sale to low-income families.

Jurrors Begin Deliberating Fate Of Dr. Willis, Wife

The Willis abortion trial jury retired at 11:24 a.m. today to weigh evidence in eight counts against Dr. Jack E. Willis of Mill Valley and five counts against Mrs. Josephine Willis, his wife.

The three-man, nine-woman jury was expected to be out all day considering the welter of testimony and exhibits.

In his instruction Superior Court Judge Thomas F. Keating told the jury to bring in either innocent or guilty verdicts on each count for each defendant. The instruction was routine, but covered so much material it lasted for more than an hour.

Judge Keating told the jurors to disregard the fact that witness John Barger, a friend of Dr. Willis, had refused to testify. The judge said that was not to be construed as detrimental to Willis' case.

The defendants, if convicted, could be sentenced to two years on each count.

Hub Driver Injures Neck In Accident In San Rafael

A San Anselmo motorist complained of a whiplash injury to his neck this morning after a three-car collision on Second street at C street in San Rafael.

The victim is Salvatore Peter Tarantino of 81 Angela avenue, San Anselmo. Other drivers were Charles Forster Loeffler of 20 Irving drive, San Anselmo, and Mrs. Valete T. Eliason of 3 Jessup street, San Rafael. Mrs. Eliason was cited for driving without due caution and following too closely.

Police said Loeffler and Tarantino, headed east on Second street, were stopped at the signal at C street about 7:30 a.m. Mrs. Eliason's vehicle collided with Tarantino's, which in turn hit Loeffler's.

Three others suffers minor injuries yesterday in San Rafael mishaps.

One victim was San Rafael Planning Commissioner May Zappetini, 73, of 1115 Second street, San Rafael. She was a passenger in a station wagon driven by her daughter, Mrs. Mary Eleanor Fritz, 51, of the same address.

They were headed north on D street about 4:53 p.m. when a car driven by an 18-year-old youth pulled out from First street and hit the right side of Mrs. Fritz's station wagon. Police cited Reid Urban Blake of 408 Greenfield avenue, San Anselmo, for failing to yield the right of way.

Mrs. Zappetini suffered an injury to her right wrist, which hit the door handle. Mrs. Fritz complained of pains in her shoulder, arms and hands.

Joseph William Smith, 63, of 39 Jordan avenue, San Anselmo, a Pacific Gas and Electric Co. executive, was treated at San Rafael General Hospital for a spinal sprain yesterday and released. Smith was back at work today.

He was driving a company car on E street north of Second when a car crashed into him from behind about 7:50 a.m. yesterday. Driver of the second car, Albert Carl Lamperti of 31 Clorinda avenue, San Rafael, was cited for following too closely.

Two-Term Limit Repeal Favored

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Senate judiciary subcommittee has approved two proposed constitutional amendments. One would repeal the two-term limit for presidents. The other would abolish the poll tax for voting.

Both were sent to the full Judiciary Committee, where action is uncertain.

Novato Housewife Suffers Wrist Cuts

Sheriff's investigators said the wound was apparently self-inflicted. Victim is Mrs. Doris Van Belkinburgh, 35, of 86 Pico Vista, Novato. She went to her family physician about 4 a.m., and the doctor notified the sheriff.

MARINE LEARNS HAZARDS OF PARADE DUTY

All but Heinz.

'Hermit' Student Back To Studies

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)—Cheng Guan Lim, the student who spent four years in hiding in the attic of Ann Arbor's Methodist Church, decided today to resume his studies at the University of Michigan.

The 28-year-old student, found Sunday, said he made up his mind after learning that his mother was in good health and that she agreed to his decision.

Cheng hid out because, as he explained, he had poor grades and financial worries and was ashamed to face his friends and his family.

Hopes Of Labor Bill Agreement Run Into Snag

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) reported today a construction site picketing snag had caused a sharp setback to hopes for quick final agreement on a labor bill.

The 14 conferees trying to compromise Senate and House bills broke up for lunch with plans for a final settlement today apparently gone awry. But they agreed to meet again.

Kennedy, the conference chairman, said the House parliamentarian had ruled that a construction picketing provision pushed by the Senate Democratic conferees could be killed on a point of order if it were included in the final bill.

A new compromise on the construction picketing issue was offered as the conferees met today.

Army Awards Money To Marin Employees

Two Marin County employees of Headquarters, 6th U. S. Army, have received cash awards for useful suggestions submitted under the Army incentive awards program. Joseph M. Milano of 41 Midway avenue, Mill Valley, won $30 and Arthur W. Fisk of 590 Ferragon drive, San Rafael, won $45. Both are employees of the commissary, Milano being a meat cutter and Fisk a counter manager.

STOCKS TODAY

COMBINED AP & UPI

NEW YORK—Industrial stocks scored a limited advance today but rails and utilities couldn't generate any interest.

The over-all market was slightly higher on balance with volume on the light side. The steels, nonferrous metals, and autos stood out on the downside.

There was some erosion of gains in the list before the close. Brokers attributed this slide to the failure of follow-through support to develop on the upside.

Volume for the day was estimated at 2,200,000 shares compared with 2,430,000 yesterday.

Key stocks showed gains or losses running from fractions to about a point.

American Motors rose more than a point, Youngstown Sheet more than three, Reynolds Metals more than two, U.S. Steel better than a point and General Motors and Jones and Laughlin around a point.

Among soft spots were Thiokol and U.S. Gypsum, both down more than a point. Moderate losses were taken by International Harvester, United Aircraft, Kennecott, Commonwealth Edison, Air Reduction, General Electric, Westinghouse Electric and Pfizer.

Gains of around a point were made by Goodrich, Texas Instruments and Ward Industries. Merck added more than two.

Lakeside Drive Pump Station Work Planned

Directors of Corte Madera Sanitary District agreed last night that Corte Madera's Lakeside drive pumping station must be remodeled to handle an ever-increasing volume of sewage.

The board asked Brown and Caldwell, San Francisco consulting engineers, to determine what work is necessary and prepare a cost estimate.

Built about 12 years ago, the Madera Gardens facility pumps sewage to the Greenbrae treatment plant of Ross Valley Sanitary District through a high-pressure line to Highway 101.

Directors withheld final approval of Pullman Building Co.'s proposed sanitary sewer system for Paradise Cay subdivision, pending submission of complete plans for the project. Paradise Cay was annexed to the district in June.

Civilian Employees Earn Army Awards

A citation for "sustained superior performance" as supervisor supply technician, plus $150, went to Lawrence J. Wells of 329 Richardson way, and a certificate and $10 were given to Mrs. Mary J. Kean of 150 Edgewood avenue for management improvement suggestions.

Reed District Requests Condemnation Of Site

Reed Union School District trustees last night voted unanimously to ask the county counsel to file a condemnation suit against the Tiburon Development Corp. for seven one-acre lots in Del Mar Estates subdivision in Tiburon.

The land is to be added to the eight acres the district now owns for the site of a future school.

The board also voted to authorize funds necessary for appraisal of the property.

The action followed a presentation by Miss A'Leen Runkle of the Marin County Planning Commission of the 1954 survey and the peninsula master plan. The plan shows the sites as a kindergarten through sixth grade school.

Architects Warren Callister and Martin Rosse are drawing plans for the school.

"We will need more information on future school populations on the peninsula before we can decide which kind of school will do the best job—a seventh-eighth grade school or elementary school," Trustee Chairman Richard J. MacLaury said.

Several protestants, led by George White of Del Mar Estates, whose property is located near the proposed school site, said that change of the school from kindergarten through sixth grade to seventh and eighth grades would create more activity, noise and traffic.

Trustee David D. Ring was named chairman of a committee to conduct studies of site selection, utilization and school boundaries. He is to propose names for members of his committee.

In other action the board:

1. Approved a bus transportation contract with Greyhound Lines to provide the district with three buses and drivers at a daily rate of $22.75 for each bus.

2. Approved a teacher's contract for Mrs. Beatrice Palmer, who will teach seventh grade at Reed School.

Bond Debate Set For Terra Linda

All aspects of Terra Linda's proposed $350,000 bond issue for recreation facilities will be explored at a public debate at 8 p.m. tomorrow at Bernard Hoffman School.

Speaker in favor of the bond issue will be John Namle, president of the Terra Linda Community Services District which has called the bond election for Sept. 15.

Opposing him will be Robert Friend, a member of the Terra Linda Homeowners Assn. Following the debate rebuttals, the meeting will be thrown open to questions from the audience.

HOMESTEAD FIRE COMMISSIONER DOUBLES AS OPERA MUSICIAN

Homestead Valley fire commissioner Carl Modell took the train to Portland today, not to attend a firemen's convention but help launch Oregon's opera season.

Modell, in addition to being one of three commissioners of the Homestead Valley Volunteer Fire Department, is secretary of the board—and a double bass player—in the San Francisco opera orchestra.

Portland's opera season will open tomorrow night with "Love For Three Kings."

Modell and others in the San Francisco orchestra from Marin will be in Oregon's principal city for a week, and will return to California in time to open San Francisco's opera season on Sept. 11.

Among others from Marin playing in the San Francisco orchestra and also going to Oregon are Charles Meacheam, principal second violinist, and Everett O'Bannon, violin, both of Tamalpais Valley; William Wegman, violin, Mill Valley; Raymond Ojeda, bassoon, and Merrill Jordan, flute, Larkspur.

Woman's Story Proves False All Way Around

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The story of a cancer victim inheriting two million dollars from her rich Scottish uncle fell completely apart today as fact replaced fiction.

Mrs. Jean Naccarelli, 46, a Pittsburgh housewife, has not inherited two million dollars from her late uncle, John Lennon of Aberdeen, as she said she had. John Lennon died several years ago, Mrs. Naccarelli's daughters said, leaving nothing like that vast sum.

Records show that telegrams supposedly telling Mrs. Naccarelli that she inherited the money probably were sent from Pittsburgh and not Scotland.

Mrs. Naccarelli has said doctors give her only one year to live. Her husband says the only thing he knows about his wife's physical condition is that doctors diagnose her trouble as a "bad liver."

Mrs. Naccarelli is not the woman who was Miss Pittsburgh of 1932, as she claimed to be.

Her two daughters—Noreen, 20, and Jean, 16—are not a doctor and nurse on the staff of Johns Hopkins in Baltimore, the hospital has announced.

Mrs. Naccarelli's telephone was disconnected yesterday.

Boat Harbor Report Set At Larkspur

A progress report on Larkspur's proposed 100-berth small boat harbor on Arroyo Holon Canal will be presented to the Larkspur City Council tonight by City Manager Ronald E. Piper.

Piper also will submit the final 1959-60 Larkspur budget for approval at tonight's meeting. The total is the same as the approved preliminary budget of $275,286, but the final budget contains more precise revenue figures, Piper said.

Several planning matters, including proposed residential rezoning of the Coleman estate property on Magnolia avenue, will round out the council agenda. The council will convene at 8 o'clock in Larkspur City Hall.

AFRICAN WOMEN PROTEST RESTRICTIONS

Brandishing cudgels, and with some of them carrying their babies on their back, South African women charge across road in Natal Province to join demonstration against government restrictions on travel by non-whites. Thousands of women gathered to protest that the restrictions made it impossible for their menfolk to travel to their jobs in Durban. (AP Wirephoto)

Cheering Crowds Give Ike Big Paris Welcome

Crowds estimated at half a million jammed the center of the city, cheering and shouting as the World War II leaders drove past in an open car on their way to conferences crucial to the Western alliance.

It was a greeting reminiscent of the day in 1944 when Eisenhower was cheered as liberator of Paris. Officials and newsmen said the turnout appeared greater than that for Eisenhower's arrival in London.

Eisenhower is the first American president to pay a state visit to France since Woodrow Wilson came after World War I.

And France greeted him with all the pomp and ceremony she could muster—a booming 101-gun salute, blaring bands and a squadron of 64 white-gloved motorcycle escorts flanking the presidential car.

Study Urged On Air Force, Army Merger

WASHINGTON (AP) — A congressional committee says tactics in the space age may require a new merger of the Army and the Air Force, which have been separate units only 12 years.

In a report filed yesterday, the House Government Operations Committee on the nation's missile programs said it is time to consider forming a single, missile-armed fighting service.

The President should order studies to determine if a merger would be the best course of action, the committee said.

The committee did not call for incorporation of the Navy into one big military service, but it said this might be done ultimately.

There would be great savings under a merger, the committee said, because:

1. "The bitter defense controversy over air defense mission" would be eliminated.
2. Overhead would be cut.
3. Technical talents of the two services would be combined and "teamed with a diversified missile industry to produce future weapons efficiently at lower cost."

Ike Enjoys Pleasant Reunion With Old British Comrades

LONDON (AP)—President Eisenhower had a happy reunion in a reminiscing atmosphere last night with British comrades of World War II.

The President was a laughing, joking host, quickly putting at rest any tenseness that might have been felt by those of the guests who have criticized his war strategy in their memoirs.

By coincidence, the stag dinner was held on the 20th anniversary of the German invasion of Poland, which set off World War II.

Eisenhower cordially greeted Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery, whose critical comments nettled Eisenhower so much that he snubbed a card from Montgomery last Christmas.

When the evening was over, Montgomery left beaming and waving enthusiastically to a cheering crowd outside Winfield House, the residence of U.S. Ambassador John Hay Whitney where the dinner was held.

At dinner Montgomery sat within talking range of Eisenhower, just five feet across the table.

Eisenhower was in high spirits and in no mood to raise past antagonisms.

He placed in an honored seat at his left Field Marshal Viscount Alanbrooke, who also has had a few criticisms of his wartime leadership. Alanbrooke was Britain's top commander during the war.

U.S. Crime Rate Goes Up In Year

WASHINGTON (AP) — Crime in the United States increased 9.3 per cent in 1958 over 1957.

The year's crime clock indicated: A murder every 64.2 minutes, A forcible rape every 36.1 minutes. A robbery every 7 minutes. A car stolen every 1.9 minutes. A burglary every 46.4 seconds.

Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers and Federal Bureau of Investigation Director J. Edgar Hoover jointly reported today there were an estimated 1,553,922 crimes classified as very serious offenses last year compared with 1,442,285 in 1957.

AMOUNT OF INCREASE

There were increases in all of the individual classifications as follows: Murder, 8,182 in 1958 and 8,027 in 1957, an increase of 1.9 per cent; forcible rape, 14,561 and 12,886, 13 per cent; robbery, 75,247 and 66,843, 12.7 per cent; aggravated assault, 113,530 and 110,672, 2.6 per cent; burglary, 679,787 and 603,707, 12.6 per cent; larceny over $50, 391,550 and 354,972, 10.3 per cent; auto theft, 270,965 and 265,178, 2.2 per cent.

YOUNG CRIMINALS

Youths under 18 represented only 12.1 per cent of all persons arrested. They accounted, however, for 64.1 per cent of all arrests for auto theft, 49.9 per cent of those for burglary, 48.5 per cent of those for larceny, 30.9 per cent of those for receiving or possessing stolen property and 22.8 per cent of those for robbery.

Crime increased more than five times as fast as the population.

There were 896.9 serious crimes committed for every 100,000 population, or one such crime for every 111 citizens.

SAL AGRON
'Don't care if I burn'

New York Police Nab Leader Of Teen Gang

NEW YORK (AP)—Police picked up three youths today and reported one of them said he was the cape-clad "Dracula" who led an attack in which two 16-year-old boys were stabbed to death Sunday.

"Dracula" earned his nickname because he wore a nurse's dark blue cape, which made him resemble the vampire of horror stories and movies.

Police said the youth identified himself as Sal Agron of Brooklyn.

Police said he did not admit the fatal stabbings but said he "cut somebody" during the attack.

Police said three cruising patrolmen spotted three susicious looking youths shortly after 2 a.m. today in the Bronx. First the officers collared Agron, who, they said, had a knife on him. Then they picked up the other two.

Four youths have already been charged with homicide in the stabbings, and another five youths have been accused of unlawful assembly. Police said all those held are Puerto Ricans.

Police said one of the youths with Agron was Tony Luis Hernandez of Manhattan. According to police he was the "Umbrella Man," so named because he used an umbrella as a club in the fighting. Both Agron and Hernandez are 17.

"I don't care if I burn," Agron arrogantly snarled at police. "My mother could watch me."

One of the greatest manhunts in New York history had been staged for Agron since the killing, which climaxed a growing spate of juvenile terror and murder.

Outraged citizens' demands for action also brought swift moves by both city and state officials for emergency measures to cope with the wild outbreak of lawlessness.

Among other things, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller called a a parley of top authorities and church leaders to map a war on teen age crime. Invited to join them was Federal Bureau of Investigation Director J. Edgar Hoover.

Trio Denies Propaganda Accusation

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three former Mutual Broadcasting System officials have denied federal accusations that they accepted $750,000 to broadcast Dominican Republic propaganda disguised as news.

A federal grand jury indicted the trio here yesterday. They were charged with failing to register as agents for the Dominican Republic and with conspiring to keep Mutual from registering. The money allegedly was given them around last Feb. 6.

The indictments did not indicate if the network actually did broadcast any propaganda for the Dominican Republic. Generalissimo Rafael Trujillo, a key figure in the present Caribbean unrest, is the Dominican strongman.

Two of the officials—Alexander L. Guterma and Garland L. Culpepper Jr.—resigned from Mutual within a week after they accepted the money, the federal grand jury charged. The third, Hal Roach Jr., left Mutual about a month and a half later.

Guterma, an international financier in trouble with the federal government on several other questions involving money matters, was president of Mutual. Roach was board chairman and Culpepper a director.

Slump In Housing Construction Seen

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Signs of a slump in housing construction were reported yesterday by Real Estate Commissioner W. A. Savage.

In a report to Gov. Edmund G. Brown, he said material shortages and "uncertainties in the money market" may slacken subdivision activity in the immediate future.

However, he said subdivision activity in California for the first seven months of 1959 was 36 per cent greater than in 1958. The subdividers had the most active July since 1955.

REPORT FROM FBI

California's Crime Rate Rises 9 Per Cent In Year

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Federal Bureau of Investigation reported today a 9 per cent increase in crime in California in 1958 compared with 1957.

The Bureau's annual report showed 254,608 offenses last year in California compared with 232,517 in 1957. On the basis of 100,000 population, that is a rate of 1,775.9 compared with 1,675.3.

The FBI reported increases in all categories of major crimes. By categories, with 1958 figures first, these comparative totals were reported: Murder and manslaughter, 531 and 489; robbery, 12,690 and 11,630; assault, 16,140 and 14,654; burglary, 112,611 and 101,643; larcency over $50, 66,298 and 58,746, and auto theft, 46,338 and 45,355.

Offenses known to police in California cities of more than 25,000 population include those comparisons except no 1957 figures are available for negligent manslaughter and forcible rape because of a change in categories.

Scientists agree that there is no life on planet Mercury.

New Step In Effect To Cut Death Toll

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The third major step in California's "all-out war" on traffic deaths went into effect today—possibly in time to save many lives during the Labor Day weekend.

As of today, a driver convicted of a moving violation in connection with a fatal accident will lose his license for one year, according to state Motor Vehicle Director Robert McCarthy.

"We are purposely timing this so it will affect the Labor Day traffic," he said. "Last year, 51 persons died in California traffic during the Labor Day holiday—and we don't want it to happen again.

This was a step three in the state's battle against reckless or drunken drivers.

In April it was announced that drivers convicted of four or more moving violations would lose their licenses for varying periods. On July 1, McCarthy announced that drivers would lose their licenses for six months after the first conviction for misdemeanor drunk driving.

"It worked," McCarthy said. "California was 10th in the country in the number of traffic deaths during the Fourth of July weekend—instead of our usual first place."

Cream Subs Rapped

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The state Bureau of Dairy Service is planning to stir some trouble for coffee vending machines.

In a letter to milk inspectors yesterday, bureau chief O. A. Ghiggoile said:

"Some units carry the word 'cream' where no cream is used. The use of products other than cream, when the label indicates cream, is false, misleading and deceptive."

Parents Capitalized On Son's 'Sticky Fingers'

SAN DIEGO (AP)—A mother accused of aiding her teenaged son in 600 shoplifting forays says she and her husband took advantage of the boy's "sticky fingers" because her family was hungry.

Delores Myers, 36, mother of seven, was arraigned yesterday on charges of burglary and contributing to the delinquency of her son, Gary, 14.

She was arrested at a house she and her husband, Kenneth, 42, rented Friday.

Charges were filed against the Myers after Gary was arrested in a department store Aug. 14. He told police his parents taught him and the other children to steal. He said that he had made 600 shoplifting trips with one or the other of his parents. While he raided stores, his parents waited for him in a parked car, Gary said.

Mrs. Myers told newsmen she and her husband had "taken advantage of the boy's sticky fingers" and that Myers had never told Gary that stealing was wrong.

When the first commercial hybrid corn seeds were put on the market in 1922, only 10 bushels were available. In 1958, 94 per cent of the 3,800,000,000 bushels of corn harvested in the U.S. alone was hybrid.

Accountants Meet

Marin accountants George Byrne, San Anselmo; John Finn III, Mill Valley; Richard Tyler, San Rafael, and Peter James Wikel, Larkspur, met recently at the University of California Santa Barbara campus for three days of advanced study with other members of the Society of California Accountants.

Cranston Sees Big Loss To State If U.S. Law Passed

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Controller Alan Cranston says California will lose six million dollars a year in taxes if a bill passed by the U. S. Senate becomes law.

The measure by Sen. Harry F. Byrd (D-Va.) would prohibit states from collecting income taxes from out-of-state corporations.

Cranston said California has collected taxes for 22 years on the California income of corporations which maintain headquarters elsewhere. The state taxed 12,558 such firms in 1959.

The controller said he has written to all California congressmen urging them to oppose the Byrd bill.

Mill Valley Harbor Financing Outlined

Mill Valley city manager A. E. Almcrants yesterday told the Mill Valley Rotary Club that the proposed city harbor could be financed out of local revenues.

Almcrants, speaking at the regular Rotary meeting at the golf course clubhouse, gave details of the harbor plan, and said the city council is expected to take action tonight toward gaining state aid. Almcrants and the city attorney are expected to be ordered to start condemnation proceedings.

Almcrants said the harbor would have to be more fully explained to state officials before the city can get state funds.

Real Estate Views And Values

Parked along the main highway leading into a nearby city; I spotted a middle-aged car with a large sign across the windshield. In big letters was printed: "I need a new home. Make an offer."

As I drove by I thought there must be many of you who, like this car-owner, need a new home. And perhaps, it has never occured to you, that you may have the MEANS on hand to handle the necessary down payment on a home, even if you are low on cash.

Nancy Kopf

Of course, houses are still available on small cash down payments. And, if your savings are sufficient, a cash down payment is the easiest way to buy a home. But, many owners will consider a car, or trailer home, or an equity in another property, or a mortgage or trust deed balance, as a down payment. Frequently, we find people are surprised to learn that these items work nearly as well as cash in handling a purchase.

So if you wish to buy a home, or other type of real estate, come in and see if, together, we can figure out a way to get the job done! WM. E. DOUD & CO., 25 E. Blithedale, Mill Valley, DU 8-8494. Multiple Listing Service.

Teacher Sees Similarity In U.S., British Teaching Ideas

By JACK SIMCOX

"You're coming over to our way and we're coming over to yours, as far as I can see," Robert Keith Leckie, Brookside School's new teacher under the Fulbright exchange program, observed upon his arrival in San Anselmo.

Leckie was commenting on comparative British and American educational systems and philosophies.

He had specific reference to new policies in the United States which segregate slow, average and fast learners and enlarge schools for specialized instruction for each group.

NO SEGREGATION

"In England," he said, "there is a lot of experimenting going on and it is in the direction of your 'comprehensive' system, in which there is no segregation at the age of 11. Leicestershire has adopted your system of junior high schools and everybody seems very pleased."

"Segregation" and "comprehensive" are words esoteric to English education as well as to education in the United States, it was interesting to note—but with different meanings.

The "segregation" at the age of 11, Leckie explained, is the British policy under which elementary school children who excel are sent on to grammar school for very intensive academic instruction, while the average and slow learners go to trade or business schools.

20 PER CENT CONTINUE

At most, 20 per cent go on to grammar school.

"Every county is trying to get rid of this segregation at 11. They're adopting the U.S. 'comprehensive' system where the student body is kept together," he said.

But in the United States, "comprehensive" now is used most often in reference to the new philosophy wherein the student bodies are separated into the three groups—fast, average and slow learners.

However, in the United States, the objectives and physical facilities remain the same for each group. Only teaching techniques are changed.

HE'S MODEST

Leckie, a native of Manchester, showed himself to be a modest man—or perhaps, it's diplomacy.

Keith, as he prefers to be called, arrived in the Bay Area on a foggy Sunday morning last. Quite naturally, it was the fog here compared to the fog of London upon which he was first asked to pronounce.

In an understatement, he said simply, "Your fog is more picturesque," refusing a perfect chance to boast.

It was only when asked specifically about the "killer" fogs of London, where he last taught, that he averred: "The London fog is much heavier. You go to a theater and the fog would get in, and they would cancel the performance."

Actually Leckie taught in Richmond Surrey, outside London. He is a university man of Nottingham. He will teach eighth grade English, arithmetic and music at Brookside.

He is the first Fulbright exchange teacher to come to Marin County, said Harold R. DePue, superintendent of the San Anselmo-Fairfax-Kentfield confederated school districts.

But it is the 28-year-old Briton's second go at it. He taught for a year in Nancy, France, under a similar program.

Crossing the American continent, Leckie had three airliners default under him, all with engine trouble. He arrived 12 hours late at San Francisco International Airport.

Hub Teacher Goes To England In Exchange Program

Stanley Rutherford, 42, of 250 Reed boulevard, Mill Valley, a teacher at Brookside School, San Anselmo, has gone to England where he will teach school for a year under a Fulbright scholarship.

Expected to arrive sometime next week is the man whose place Rutherford will take. He is Robert K. Leckie of Orchard County Primary School, Richmond, Surrey, England. Leckie will take Rutherford's classes.

Rutherford has been teaching eighth grade at Brookside since 1950. Both men are unmarried.

Fair Employment Chairman Named

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Gov. Edmund G. Brown today appointed John Anson Ford, former Los Angeles supervisor, as first chairman of California's new Fair Employment Practices Commission.

The governor also named Edward Howden of San Francisco as chief of the Division of Fair Employment Practices in the Department of Industrial Relations.

Brown said the four other commissioners provided by the new law will be named shortly.

More than 42,000 men between the ages of 15 and 64 are killed in accidents each year in the United States.

Bike Strikes Truck; Child Not Injured

A 7-year-old Santa Venetia girl, Janice Peterson of 16 Garden avenue, escaped without injury when her bicycle ran into the side of a Pacific Gas and Electric Co. truck at 7:15 p.m. yesterday near her home.

She was taken to Marin General Hospital by her father, Floyd Peterson, but examination disclosed no injury. She told California Highway Patrol Officer Robert Greer that she turned right from Garden avenue onto Linda avenue and ran into the truck.

William Roemer, driver of the truck, stopped and drove her home.

PEOPLE AND MONKEYS TO EAT, SWIM TOGETHER AT NOVATO

Monkeys and people alike will revel at a spaghetti dinner and swimming party in Novato Sunday.

The mixed gathering will begin at noon at the home of Mrs. Bettie Seiler, 678 Atherton avenue. Mrs. Seiler is herself a monkey owner and kennel keeper at the Bay Tree Farms ranch.

"It should prove great fun," said Mrs. Seiler. "The monkeys are invited to join us for dinner and in the pool later. My own monkey goes for a swim there quite often."

Persons with simian pets from throughout the Bay Area are expected to attend. They may form a chapter of the Simian Society of the United States, said Mrs. Seiler.

"After all, dogs and cats have their clubs, why should monkeys continue to be unorganized?" she demanded.

Monkey owners (and their monkeys) planning to attend should notify Mrs. Seiler beforehand, she said.

Capitol Dome's Statue Will Continue Green

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Capitol dome will be painted oyster white this month.

But the Statue of Freedom, atop the dome, will stay green.

The old girl has stood there for 96 years. And through the years she has acquired the coat of green, from contact between the copper in her bronze statue and the moist air. Capitol architects believe the patina will help protect the 19-foot figure from further ozidation.

School Superintendents' Salaries Often Too High, Solon Charges

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Not only are many school superintendents' salaries excessive, a state Senate investigator charged today, but they are also being set "by whim and caprice."

The charge was made by Sen. Stanley Arnold (D-Susanville), who last week announced an investigation by his Fact-Finding Committee on Governmental Administration into what he called squandering the educational dollar on non-classroom purposes. He's thinking of legislative controls.

Arnold released a list of 107 school districts which paid their superintendents more than $15,000 for the year ending this June, a period in which the minimum teacher's pay was $4,200.

Salaries on the list, he said, bear "no apparent relationship to size or location of the district or whether it is an elementary, high school, junior college or unified district."

Arnold said one district with 1,500 students paid its superintendent as much as one with 60,000 pupils.

Out of the basic $125 per pupil given districts in state aid, he said many are spending $5 to $10 on superintendents.

One junior college with 68 students paid its superintendent $15,500 and an administrative assistant $9,000, or $360 per student, Arnold said, while the average teacher's salary was $5,280.

New contracts written since June indicate that many more superintendents will be getting $15,000 or more, he said.

"It does not seem necessary or proper to me," Arnold declared, "for a school district to spend a substantial part of the state allowance for the services of a superintendent.

"I recognize there is a place for supervision in the school district but the cost of such supervision must be kept in a reasonable relationship to the number of teachers or else there is nothing left with which to employ the people who must do the work in the classroom."

New Management For Dining Room

The new management is the partnership of Gim Yen Louie, Louie Fong Tow and Louie Wing Yow, all of San Francisco. They take over the dining room operation from Al Barghini, Lodo Vico Scherini and Paul Tamagno.

The dining room will offer both Chinese and American food. The partners formerly operated the dining room at Joe's Village Patio, Corte Madera.

Sewage From Mexico Menaces Health At Southland Beaches

SAN DIEGO (AP) — Sewage has become an international problem of major proportions at California's southern border where it reaches the ocean.

A swimming quarantine has been placed by the County of San Diego on Imperial Beach, just north of the border.

Both the cities of Imperial Beach and San Diego are seeking federal aid to eliminate the health menace.

The problem was created by sewage from Tijuana, Mexico, now a city of 125,000.

Waste from the Mexican city's admittedly inadequate sewage disposal plant drains through a pipeline along the Tia Juana River bed into the Pacific on the California side.

This outfall was agreed to 20 years ago when the population on both sides of the border was much smaller. Both San Diego and Imperial Beach now join Tijuana at the border.

Tijuana is cleaning out and attempting to increase the efficiency of the treatment plant. The city and the state of Baja California are reported considering construction of a new plant both for sewage disposal and water reclamation.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown has asked President Eisenhower to help speed action. He has wired the President asking him to speed funds for the oxidation ponds.

"I respectfully urge that you take whatever steps are necessary to insure the availability of funds for embarking upon a remedial ponding program, either by utilization of funds presently available or through urging emergency appropriation by the Congress," Brown said.

Menlo Park Policeman Badly Beaten

MENLO PARK (UPI)—A Menlo Park policeman was slugged, beaten, handcuffed and left for dead in a parking lot here early today when he apparently surprised two men planning a burglary.

Edward A. Schild, 28, was taken to Palo Alto Hospital, where attendants said he would recover. His necktie had been knotted in an attempt to strangle him, and the hospital said he would have died had he not had an extremely muscular neck.

Police said Schild drove his patrol car behind the Menlo Park Engineering Co. and saw a man searching an auto trunk. He got out to question him and was slugged from behind, apparently with a section of pipe.

Police theorized the two men probably planned to crack the firm's safe and the man who hit Schild was the lookout.

Schild was the third area policeman to be attacked by criminals in the past month. Hillsborough Officer Eugene Doran, 34, was shot to death on a lonely road west of San Mateo early Aug. 5.

California Highway Patrolman George Mitchell, 37, was beaten, handcuffed and thrown from a 40-foot cliff near Santa Cruz by five men July 30.

Terra Linda District Tax Rate Is 96 Cents

An assessed valuation of $4,103,370 and a tax rate of 96 cents for 1959-60 has been set for the Terra Linda Community Services District by the Marin County Board of Supervisors, the district board announced last night.

Trees Leading Topic For Sausalito Council

It was a grand night for trees at the regular meeting of the Sausalito City Council last night.

Measures before the council affecting the fate of Sausalito trees, directly or indirectly, were:

1. A resolution authorizing a "tree dedication committee" to dedicate trees in public areas selected by the Sausalito Woman's Club;

2. An ordinance requiring a permit from the city council to prune or remove dedicated trees;

3. Official concern expressed for the fate of trees standing on an uninhabited tract annexed by ordinance, the top 30 per cent to be preserved, and;

4. Official cognizance taken of the fate of the city's trees in the master plan, itself.

It was almost a personal victory for Mrs. A. C. Maynard, president of the Tree Committee of Sausalito, who has worked for years, literally, for measures to protect the city's trees.

Councilman Philip S. Ehrlich Jr. expressed regret to Mrs. Maynard near the end of the meeting that he had not prepared a speech for the occasion.

The council postponed further final approval of the Buena Vista Heights No. 2 subdivision, pending further study.

The council also passed resolutions approving agreement for expenditure of state gas tax funds for widening of Bridgeway-Richardson turn, called for bids for widening the turn, and another bid for relocating of a house at the turn.

Planners Pass Batch Plant At Larkspur

The Larkspur City Planning Commission last night granted a zoning variance permitting Richard S. Epidendio to locate a portable concrete batching plant at 2092 Redwood highway south.

The vote was 3-1, Commissioner Price J. Hall dissenting and Commissioner Vaughn Marker absent. Hall said he feared the batching plant would create a dust condition.

Epidendio said the actual mixing of concrete will be done in transit by mix trucks which will be filled at the plant site.

The matter now goes to the city council, scheduled to meet at 8 o'clock tonight in Larkspur City Hall.

San Anselmo Boy Hurt In Accident

A 16-year-old San Anselmo boy suffered cuts of his scalp and face and possible broken ribs in a 6:42 a.m. automobile accident today on Butterfield road, San Anselmo.

Michael David LeRoy was taken to Marin General Hospital by his father, Charles LeRoy, after the boy's car went off the road and hit a utility pole. He had been southbound on Butterfield road, according to San Anselmo police.

A 29-year-old bartender, Norman Haunstetter of 135 Forrest avenue, Fairfax, was admitted to Marin General Hospital at 3:06 a.m. yesterday with a fractured lower jaw and cuts of the chin and chest. He told hospital attendants that he was in an automobile accident on Lansdale avenue in San Anselmo. San Anselmo police had no report of this accident on file today.

Officers Elected By Cove Players

Arny Schultz of Mill Valley last night was elected president of the Cove Players, the Tiburon Peninsula's little theater group.

Also elected to serve for the coming year were Mrs. Nelson Shreve, first vice president; William J. Carter, second vice president; Mrs. Robert Wineman, treasurer, and Mrs. John Del Mar, secretary.

Alto Board Slates Special Meeting

Directors of the Alto Sanitary District, who normally meet on the first Monday of each month, will hold a special meeting at 1 p.m. tomorrow.

Next Monday, the first Monday of the month, is Labor Day.

San Anselmo Police Plan Traffic Check

The San Anselmo Police Department will conduct a traffic safety check on Friday as a precautionary measure for the three-day Labor Day weekend, announced Police Chief Raymond R. Buchignani.

Other Bay Area cities will conduct traffic checks the same day on recommendation of the Bay Area Traffic Executives Council. Exact time and place of the San Anselmo traffic check was not disclosed.

Six policemen at the San Anselmo check point will be on the lookout for intoxication of drivers and passengers, improper driver registration and licenses, inadequate lights and mechanical defects of any kind, Chief Buchignani said. It has been several years since San Anselmo had its last traffic safety check.

"Because of the long Labor Day weekend, we feel a check is imperative to safeguard lives and property," the chief said.

Petaluma Man Faces Flock Of Charges

A Petaluma man, accused of throwing dishes and silverware at waitresses of Burge's Drive-in this morning led sheriff's deputies on a high speed chase until he was finally trapped in West Petaluma.

James Robert Kennedy, 26, was lodged in Marin County Jail on a series of charges including drunken driving, felonious assault and resisting arrest.

HELP SUMMONED

A waitress at the drive-in called for help about 2:45 a.m. She told officers Kennedy entered with several companions and became boisterous. According to witnesses Kennedy began using vulgar language at employees and tried to attack the janitor. When a waitress entervened, Kennedy threatened to hit her, then began tossing silverware and dishes.

Waitresses said he picked up a heavy coffee cup and hurled it at one waitress, missing her. But in the melee, one plate glass window was broken.

Kennedy took off northward, with Deputy Sheriff William Brust in pursuit. Brust caught up with Kennedy in Novato, but Kennedy drove off again, reaching speeds of 80 to 85 miles per hour.

ROAD BLOCK

Petaluma police helped set up a road block. Kennedy was finally arrested when his car hit a mailbox and went into a ditch in West Petaluma, just off the Sonoma-Napa road.

Four sheriff's deputies had to use force to pull Kennedy from his car and handcuff him. He was swinging all the time, officers said.

Lynwood Board Quorum Lacking

Directors of the Lynwood Park Improvement Assn., who last night were expected to decide as to which of 13 property owners in the Lynwood tract, delinquent in dues payments, would be taken to court, were unable to conduct business because of lack of a quorum.

Directors present agreed that a special meeting on the matter should be held within two weeks. Directors had previously decided that legal action will be taken to force property owners to pay the $18 annual dues.

All persons who purchase homes in the 105-home subdivision have signed deed restrictions making it mandatory to pay the dues, explained Mrs. Carlos Rivermonte, secretary.

Air Force Won't Say If Atlas Target Date Met

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Atlas now is in the hands of the Strategic Air Command, but the Air Force will not say if this means the intercontinental ballistic missile is operational.

The Air Force confirmed that the 5,500-mile range Atlas was transferred from the Air Research and Development Command at SAC.

Yesterday was the target date set by secretary of Defense Neil McElroy for getting an ICBM to the point where the United States could use it in a war.

The Russians claim that their intercontinental missiles already are operational and in the hands of troops.

ERICK, Okla. (AP) — High school students have been assigned storm cellars in town to which they report whenever there is danger of a tornado.

Sausalito To Use Parking Meters 7 Days A Week

Sausalito parking meters will be in operation seven days a week, after ample notice, as a result of an ordinance passed last night by the city council.

The ordinance, passed over the objection of Councilman George E. Keeney, was urged by Mayor Howard Sievers, who pointed out that Sausalito, unlike most cities, does the greatest volume of its business on Saturdays and Sundays.

The ordinance affects all Sausalito parking meters except those on Caledonia street.

Ferry Boat's Location Referred To Planners

A request to allow the ferry boat Berkeley to remain at its present location in the ferry slip adjacent to the city park was referred last night by the Sausalito City Council to the planning commission.

The request was sent to the planning commission by the approval of a resolution authored by Councilman Philip S. Ehrlich, marking the first official issue involving the city master plan which itself is yet to become law.

"The master plan recommends that the southeast section of the waterfront be kept clear except for the yacht club," Ehrlich noted.

Luther W. Conover, owner of the Berkeley, from which he proposes to conduct his Trade Fair, Inc., business, requested authorization to moor the boat permanently at the downtown site.

Councilman John E. Koenig Jr. voiced objection to the request, stating, "It would complicate an area which is already complicated."

The council failed to indicate further its feelings regarding the matter. Conover had asked an inkling of what to expect as he noted, the Berkeley must be moored permanently before the autumn storms set in.

If the request is denied, Conover said he would move the Berkeley to the only alternative site—a location north of Sausalito, near Commodore Aviation.

In this eventuality the city would lose the sales tax revenue from Trade Fair, Inc., he pointed out. Letters from the Sausalito Chamber of Commerce as well as from several private citizens were read, all urging that Conover's request be granted.

Terra Linda District To Seek Legal Advice

The Terra Linda Community Services District decided last night to seek legal counsel regarding possible action on the proposed withdrawal from the district of the Terra Linda Corp.

The corporation owns a parcel of uninhabited land north of Freitas parkway which was recently annexed to the City of San Rafael.

The district provides "only nominal services" and "the property will not be benefited by remaining in the district," Calvin B. Wheeler, head of the corporation, contended in seeking the withdrawal.

A hearing on the proposed withdrawal is scheduled before the Marin County Board of Supervisors on Sept. 15 at 3 p.m.

In other action last night, the district board:

1. Authorized the district general manager to request specifications from the county on 200 feet of paved walkway to be laid between Las Collindas and Holly drives. Estimates on the job will be sought from local contractors on receipt of the specifications.

2. Approved sending a letter to commendation to Kenneth Meade, district recreation director, for his work with the district during the summer, and authorized payment of $312 to Meade for services rendered.

3. Appointed Fay Blair as assistant district general manager, secretary and clerk. The appointment was made after a request for help in checking absentee ballots on the forthcoming bond issue election by general manager Jack Brandon.

4. Set Sept. 15—day of the bond election—at 8 p.m. as the time of the board's next regular meeting at the Bernard Hoffman School. A special meeting to canvass returns of the Sept. 15 ballots on the park and recreation bond issue is scheduled for Sept. 21, at 8 p.m.

District Advised On Bond Maturity

Maturity dates of any bonds issued by the Terra Linda Community Services District may be set by the district so long as the maximum term of the bonds before maturity does not exceed 40 years, the district board was informed last night.

The notification came from the law firm of Orrick, Dahlquist, Herrington and Sutcliffe in answer to a request for the information by the board.

Residents of the district will vote on a $350,000 park and recreation bond issue on Sept. 15.

CARLISLE DECLARES:

Tam District Faces Year Of Opportunity

Last year was a year of challenge for Tamalpais Union High School District and 1959-60 will be a "year of opportunity," Supt. Chester G. Carlisle declared yesterday at a meeting of district employees in the Sir Francis Drake High School little theater.

Carlisle reviewed financial of an increase in the district's basic tax rate ceiling (from $1.25 to $1.90 per $100 assessed valuation) gave the Tamalpais district a "key challenge to keep faith with the people" and make certain "they get what they are paying for."

Carlisel reviewed financial problems and academic curtailments which preceded the February election and noted that the new district budget restores all cuts "as promised."

"No teachers left to get higher salaries," he added.

As major projects for the new school year, Carlisle listed (1) a bond election for expansion of the district's three high schools, (2) an experimental seven-period school day for college preparatory students, and (3) a voluntary accreditation program to be conducted at the three schools by the California Assn. of Secondary School Administrators.

had been decided that the board's previous rejection had been "improper."

Jordan said there had been nothing improper but earlier there had been no word of desire for anything in the way of a formal hearing and on a basis of information available, he had advised rejection of the claims. When Bjorkland later asked that the rejection be rescinded, he said that "as a matter of fairness" it had seemed best to rescind and bring the matter up as a fresh issue.

The earlier rejection, he said, "didn't indicate a decision on the merits."

Mrs. Schultz said she had thought it was agreed that "we would have information as to how to get this to court . . . My whole desire is to expedite the procedure on getting this into court."

Supervisor William A. Gnoss said he, too, thought the matter should go to court.

"I am here presentng these claims before the board," said Bjorkland, "because the law requires me to present these claims to you people."

During the ensuing discussion, Fusselman felt that the issue lay in whether there had been error in applying the 26 per cent boost to unsecured as well as secured tax rolls.

Bjorklund and Jordan differed as to when the statute of limitations applied. Bjorklund felt the end of the fiscal year was the proper time from which to reckon the statutory three years, giving his clients time; Jordan said the time started with actual payment and therefore had run out.

Bjorklund also went into a claim that his clients had been mistakenly "lulled" into belief they could gain nothing by action.

This was based on published statements by Dist. Atty. William O. Weissich and other officials indicating that a fight was hopeless.

"You would be illegally expending county funds if you paid a claim not filed in accordance with law," Jordan told the supervisors. I disagree with his interpretation of the statute of limitations."

After further discussion, Fusselman said:

"I feel it belongs in the courts. There's a contest here of two legal minds. We are obliged to abide by the legal opinion.

"If any of the 316 came in here we'd give him a hearing and you (Bjorklund) are entitled to a hearing for them. Are you presenting all simultaneously How do you get into court with a mass proceeding like this?"

"I'll be perfectly frank, I don't know," replied Bjorklund.

On motion by Fusselman, the board voted unanimously to reject the claims on the basis that the statute of limitations had expired.

Bjorklung asked that the board notify each claimant individually. The board, on Fusselman's motion, directed the clerk to mail a notification to each.

"Prepared by the county counsel, I hope?" put in County Clerk George S. Jones.

PROTEST

Fred C. Hannahs to succeed retiring Chairman Eugene E. Trenam, were appointed in May to fill out the five-man commission created in the election.

"Since this appointment has been discussed three times by the supervisors since it first appeared on the agenda Aug. 13, I have received many phone calls asking that Fred Mantegani be considered for the post," Mrs. Schultz said. "His petition listed 69 signatures of responsible and prominent people on the Tiburon Peninsula, and he received an oral endorsement at the board meeting yesterday of the 150-member Tiburon Chamber of Commerce, represented by its president, William A. Rafter.

When asked about the petition of Richard L. Williamson for the post, Mrs. Schultz said she had checked before the appointment and found the supervisors had not received it yet. That petition, which was to be presented to the commission next Wednesday, has 124 signatures today with more to come, according to its circulator, Charles Pastori Jr. of Tiburon.

Commission Secretary Wheeler reported that several volunteer firemen had asked him to check procedures for a recall election.

"I regret that the board of supervisors has arbitrarily, without notice to the residents or to the Tiburon Fire Protection District, appointed Mr. Mantegani to the commission," Hannah, commission vice chairman, said. "The commission has made every possible effort to insure that appointments be reached openly and democratically."

All members of the commission objected to the manner in which the appointment was made.

Wheeler said the commission had not officially notified the board of supervisors of the vacancy. "We planned to send our notification with our recommendation for the post," he said.

Appointee Mantegani had no comment.

Sausalito Plans Sea Wall Repairs

The Sausalito City Council last night passed a resolution calling for bids for repairs to the sea wall, expected to cost some $12,000.

Specifications for the repair work will be in the city engineer's office Friday, it was announced.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — A plush Miami Beach hotel has asked the state cabinet for authority to build an over-the-ocean sundeck almost half an acre in size to get its guests out of the shade of a rival hotel next door.

The Eden Rock complained that an addition to the Fontainbleau will throw a shadow every afternoon on its cabana and open sun area.

It took police and fire rescue workers 15 minutes to free Ted's little finger from a hole in his desk.

Two Gunmen Rob Bank At Cotati

SANTA ROSA (AP)—Two middle-aged gunmen held up the Cotati branch of the Exchange Bank today and escaped with an undetermined amount of cash.

Officials said the sum was "quite small," indicating it would be less than $1,000.

The pair entered the bank, midway between Santa Rosa and Petaluma, at 11:07. They robbed the two tellers and one of the two customers in the bank. They fled in a station wagon.

One of the gunmen was described as about 50, wearing old clothes and dark glasses. His companion was heavy set and slightly younger.

mandatory, and what is recommendatory."

Ehrlich rebutted, "Leave out the disparagement and confine yourself to legal opinion and we'll make a lot of progress here. . . . We asked for a legal opinion, not a political opinion."

To which Ehlen replied that he was not against master plans, but only against the proposed Sausalito master plan.

He had been directed by the council at its last meeting to render an opinion on whether he considered the plan binding as an ordinance.

"Whatever is considered part of the master plan is binding," he said. He said he wanted clarification on suggestions, recommendations and mandates "so I will have some guide (in any future litigation); but I'm suggesting that whatever elements of a master plan this has, it is binding."

Gunmakers in Great Britain, once regarded as artists by grouse hunters and other sportsmen, almost disappeared after World War II. They found they could make larger salaries in precision industry.

New Law May Bar MMWD In N. Marin

A new state law, to become effective Sept. 17, will make it illegal for Marin Municipal Water District to serve the 550 new units of the Capehart housing project south of Hamilton Air Force Base if the North Marin Water District has the facilities available to serve them.

That was the opinion given last night by Fremont attorney Morris Hyman to directors of the North Marin Water District, who recently hired Hyman to investigate the question.

But Jerome B. Gilbert, manager of the northern district, told the board there is a serious question as to whether the district has the necessary facilities.

Without them, said Hyman, there is no legal means by which NMWD can prevent Marin Municipal from serving Capehart, "although there is an unwritten law in most water districts which prevents one district from invading the boundaries of another."

The Capehart area is inside the boundaries of NMWD. Directors of that district have expressed fear that the Marin Municipal district might decide to service the area. Hamilton Air Force Base itself is within the Marin Municipal district.

"We are not anxious to lose 550 potential new customers in our district," declared Arnold Heise, board president.

Hyman and Gilbert were directed to arrange a meeting with officials of Marin Municipal to learn if there is any intention to "encroach" on the northern district's territory.

Gallinas Village Sewage Plant Project Delaved

Completion of remodeling of the Gallinas Village sewage treatment plant will have to wait about six weeks for delivery of an aerator, directors of Gallinas Village Community Services District learned at their meeting last night.

When the plant was torn down for remodeling, it was found necessary to replace the aerator, explained Harry N. Johnston, district president. It has been ordered from Chicago Pump Co. and is to be delivered within six weeks. Installation will take about a week, Johnston estimated.

Jury Indicts 2 In Marin Bank Holdup

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The federal grand jury today indicted William (Dugie) Williams, 31, of Santa Rosa, for the armed robbery of a Point Reyes Station bank and the kidnaping of the manager, A. L. Cencio of Petaluma.

The bank was robbed of $14,340, part of which has been recovered.

Also indicted was Terrence C. Corkery, 50, San Rafael carpenter, accused of driving Williams from Lagunitas to Santa Rosa after the holdup.

Corkery is accused as an accessory after the crime and of failure to notify authorities of the knowledge that a crime had been committed.

Gas Sales Hit Record Level

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Gasoline sales in California set another record in the fiscal year ended last June 30, the Board of Equalization reported today.

Tax was collected on 5,404,847,000 gallons—up 287 million gallons or 5.6 per cent from the previous year's record.

The increase was nearly double the population growth. The board said tourism, suburbia and prosperity probably contributed.

The 6-cent-per-gallon tax amounted to $302,881,306 after refunds for non-highway use of fuel. The state highway program got $201,900,000; the counties $69,400,000 and the cities $31,600,000.

Dedicated Man Plans Holiday Highway Patrol

CRYSTAL LAKE, Ill. (UPI) — A man on a disagreeable mission will mingle with holiday-bent motorists over the Labor Day weekend.

James Seymour, 41, an upholsterer by trade but a traffic safety crusader at heart, will go out searching for slaughter on the highways.

If he finds it, he will record in on film in the hope that his graphic movies in color will "jolt Americans into waking up."

"We've got to teach people what's going on on our highways," Seymour said as he hammered tacks into a chair in his shop.

"Forty thousand people, more or less, are going to be killed on the highways this year. But that doesn't start to tell the story.

"When a man's dead, he's dead. But when he or members of his family are crippled for life, there is untold misery, torture and financial hardship. It goes on for months or years and affects all the family."

Seymour's mother - in - law was killed in a traffic accident 19 years ago and he couldn't get it out of his mind, he said. Six years ago he began his crusade of cruising the highways on holidays and weekends, watching for a chance to take grim shots of accident scenes.

His car is equipped with cameras ready to shoot through the windshield as he approaches a smashed up automobile. He has two police radio receivers in his car, three in his shop.

"When I get wind of an accident, I'm on my way," he said. "If I'm in my shop, I don't even take time to lock up. Often I get to the scene before the police and ambulance arrive."

Since 1953, he's roved over 175,000 miles of highways, seen twisted metal and human bodies at 700 accident sites, counted 135 "fatals" and "more thousands of injured persons than I care to remember."

Seymour said he's shot more than 60,000 feet of 16-mm. movie film, out of which he got "8,000 good feet of accident film."

His on-the-spot film was made into a movie, "Slaughter on the Highways," which has been viewed by an estimated 75,000 person from Canada to Florida.

San Rafael Man's Rites Tomorrow

Funeral services will be held tomorrow for James Francis Kelly, 41, a San Rafael mechanic who died early yesterday of a cerebral hemorrhage.

He was stricken at his home at 35 Ross street, San Rafael, and died three hours later at Marin General Hospital.

The funeral cortege will form at 9:15 a.m. at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael, and go to St. Raphael's Church, where a Requiem High Mass will be sung at 9:30. Burial will be in Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno. The rosary will be recited at 8 tonight at the mortuary.

Kelly was a mechanic at Bianco Motors in San Rafael and had lived here four years. He was a native of Washington.

He is survived by his wife, Mayme; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kelly of San Francisco, and two brothers, Raymond and Robert Kelly, both of San Francisco.

Carpenter Dies In Hospital Here

Baron T. Welch, 69, a retired carpenter, died last night at a local hospital after an illness of several months.

He and his wife, Ina resided on Meadow way in San Geronimo. He is survived by his wife and by three sons and a daughter living in Colorado. He was a native of Texas.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Chapel of the Hills in San Anselmo.

U.S. Offers Marin Bargain On Choice Waterfront Land

At a bargain half-price of $41,000, Marin County can acquire more than 19 acres of choice waterfront land for recreational purposes from the federal government.

The Marin County Board of Supervisors, having this proposition put in its lap at a meeting yesterday afternoon, flinched visibly from the prospect of finding the money—but ordered County Counsel Leland H. Jordan to submit a preliminary title report Sept. 8.

The land, the board was advised, has been declared surplus. Its assessed value is $82,000. Uncle Sam has decided that as between the county and the Reed School District, which also wanted a chance at the property, the county may have it if it will pay $41,000.

The title report was suggested by Jordan as "normal procedure" as board members initially seemed a little at a loss as to what to do.

"We're short $21,000," said Supervisor Vera L. Schultz, pointing out that $20,000 had been budgeted for land acquisition. But she moved that Jordan make a title check. Chairman Walter R. Castro seconded, but then Supervisor William D. Fusselman exploded:

"I'm not going to vote to buy it! This is entirely the wrong time. Suppose that the title is good? Still we don't have the money. I don't think we even have the money for a title search."

Mrs. Schultz reviewed background factors as to how the land near Tiburon had become available as surplus, after which the park and recreation committee and the Marin County Planning Committee recommended and the board adopted a resolution showing interest in acquiring the land and inquiring how much it would cost.

Fusselman finally joined the other four in voting for the title search.

Car Hits Rail, Driver Injured

A Mill Valley man was treated at Marin General Hospital today for a bruised nose and fractured ribs after his car slammed into a steel guard rail post early today at the intersection of Miller avenue extension and the Northwestern Railroad tracks near Tamalpais High School.

Mill Valley police said Clarence W. Culver, 25, of 75 Corte Madera avenue was pinned in his car at 1:20 a.m. when the vehicle went out of control and hit the pole.

Police said Mill Valley ambulance personnel had to cut Culver from the wreckage. They said his car, traveling northwest on the Miller avenue extension skidded 135 feet. Culver told them he was traveling only 35 miles an hour.

House Approves Cut In Night Club Tax

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House has voted to reduce the federal tax on night club tabs from 20 to 10 per cent.

The bill now goes to the Senate.

Changes In Apartment Zone Rules Approved

B. D. Dobbs of the county planning commission staff said the action would "become the base for further steps."

There will be further recommendations, he said, based on the section that requires that building sites must contain at least 1,000 square feet for each apartment unit, together with certain other provisions.

There must be one paved off-street parking space for each apartment unit, and at least 20 per cent of a building site must be landscaped, with extra site area when the lot includes cut or embankment.

Supervisor Vera Schultz argued for delay to provide better understanding by the supervisors, in spite of reports that planners and property owners had come to agreement. She also expressed a view similar to that of Planning Commissioner William Upton, who had voted against the text because he opposed the 1,000-foot provision, favoring 1,250 as the minimum limit.

She brought out that the professional planning staff had similarly favored a higher minimum, but Supervisor William D. Fusselman objected that "it's not proper procedure for the staff to try to superimpose its views over those of the commission."

Richardson Bay Meeting Delayed

A special meeting of the property owners' harbor committee for Richardson Bay, originally scheduled for tomorrow night at Sabella's, has been postponed indefinitely, it was reported today by Francis L. Newton, temporary chairman.

The committee was to have all property owners present for unveiling of a master plan for the harbor area. However, Newton said, the meeting has been postponed until committee leaders can consult with Marin County Planning Director Mary Summers. He said a new date will be announced.

County Board Opens Bids On Canal Bridge

Three bids were opened yesterday by the Marin County Board of Supervisors for construction of a bridge over a drainage canal, part of the Lucky Drive Assessment District projection in Corte Madera.

Action was postponed until Sept. 15 at 11 a.m. to allow Director of Public Works Marvin W. Brigham and engineers on the project to study the bids.

Vincent Maggiora and Son of Sausalito submitted a low bid of $33,459. William R. Cole of Berkeley bid $34,731 and Morison Construction Co. of Berkeley bid $41,696.

In other business transacted by the supervisors:

1. Three new deputy sheriffs were appointed at $395 a month: Dennis K. Shine, Robert J. Di Grazia and Herrick E. Morgan. Edward A. McKamey was promoted from deputy sheriff at $458 a month to head jailer at $481 a month.

2. Action was postponed on a request from the Tiburon Historical Landmarks Society that the county improve a road from Centro West to old St. Hilary's Church, which the society is purchasing as a historical landmark. Brigham estimated that improvement of the 22-foot-wide road would cost $19,501. The supervisors decided to explore the possibility of forming an assessment district.

3. Donald A. Jensen, county administrator, explained with diagrams Marin's exhibit at the state fair, including items from Hamilton Air Force Base, Marin City redevelopment, and showing of 12 slides of Muir Woods and the civic center.

4. The petition of William and Irene Nave to rezone to commercial 2.16 acres to the Nave Shopping Center, bringing its total to eight acres was approved.

5. Postponed to a special meeting at 10 a.m. tomorrow was action on final maps of Red Hill Unit No. 1 and Marinero.

6. Continued to Sept. 9 was the probation officer's request for payment of overtime of a dozen workers dating back to 1951.

HIGHWAY LAW ENFORCEMENT TO BE TOUGH

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown has served notice the state intends to continue what he termed a very tough policy against errant drivers.

He credited a 10-per-cent reduction in highway fatalities since April to the suspension of driver licenses for drunk driving.

"I am convinced," he told newsmen, "that the tougher you are, the better the safety record."

The governor appealed to everyone to take it easy on the road over the Labor Day weekend.

"We intend to follow a very tough law enforcement policy," he said. "Every available officer will be on duty, day and night."

Suspect Quizzed In Youth Slaying

RENO, Nev. (UPI)—Reno police today were questioning another suspect in the kidnap-slaying of Larry Waters, 17, Livermore.

Arthur Manuel Martinez, 22, who was reported AWOL from the Army, was arrested in downtown Reno last night. His description fits that of the man who left a Livermore service station with Waters last Wednesday. Waters' body with two .25 caliber bullet holes in the head was found near Reno Thursday.

Supervisors To Inspect Tidelots Project Area

After a brisk battle on basic principles of residential construction over Marin tidelands, the Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday continued until 4 p.m. Sept. 15 further consideration of an application by Fred Jukich for permission to build two duplexes on piles over his Tiburon tideland lots.

William Morrison, representing Jukich, declared the trouble is "mostly a misunderstanding."

The plans involve ingenious means of combining two lots into one for access to Mar East street. Morrison commented that "the whole of Mar East is a mess so far as lot sizes are concerned."

A presentation by B. D. Dobbs of the planning staff brought out that at least one duplex could be built in the indicated positions, "out to sea" from the edge of tideland, but nearby residents took issue with the whole idea.

"Utilization of tidelands for building is an issue," Dobbs conceded, saying that as tideland lots in themselves have no frontage on streets (unless linked with land lots) the planning commission is unanimously against such construction.

Especially bitter was North Baker, owner of the property next door at 2334 Mar East.

"The value of my property will be very much diminished," said he, explaining that at present his house commands "a sweeping view of the Golden Gate" which would be obstructed.

Dobbs said that on the actual issue of building over water, "it's all right and legal."

Other residents complained that "it's just a money-making scheme" . . . "Here is a delightful cove, where people will have to sell and leave if such things can be done . . ."

Problems of utilities and of fire protection were brought up, until Supervisor Vera Schultz said: "So many new factors have been brought up, not presented before the planning commission, that I would like to continue the matter and have the supervisors go as a whole to the area to view the situation."

The continuance was voted and it was indicated that a trip will be arranged for the board.

S.F. Contractor Fined For Drunken Driving

Victor Nicolia Rosoff, 33, a hardwood floor contractor from San Francisco, drew one year probation and a $250 fine yesterday for his first drunken driving offense.

Judge Harold J. Haley of Marin Municipal Court also restricted Rosoff's driving for the next six months. Rosoff was arrested on Highway 101 at Waldo Grade last Sunday after his car crashed with a trailer.

Radio Panel To Discuss Test Scores

Should high school seniors' scores on college entrance examinations be kept secret, or is the public entitled to know how students—particularly in tax-supported schools — make out on such tests?

Such is the problem to be discussed on radio station KTIM's "Marin Sounding Board program from 9 to 10 a.m. tomorrow.

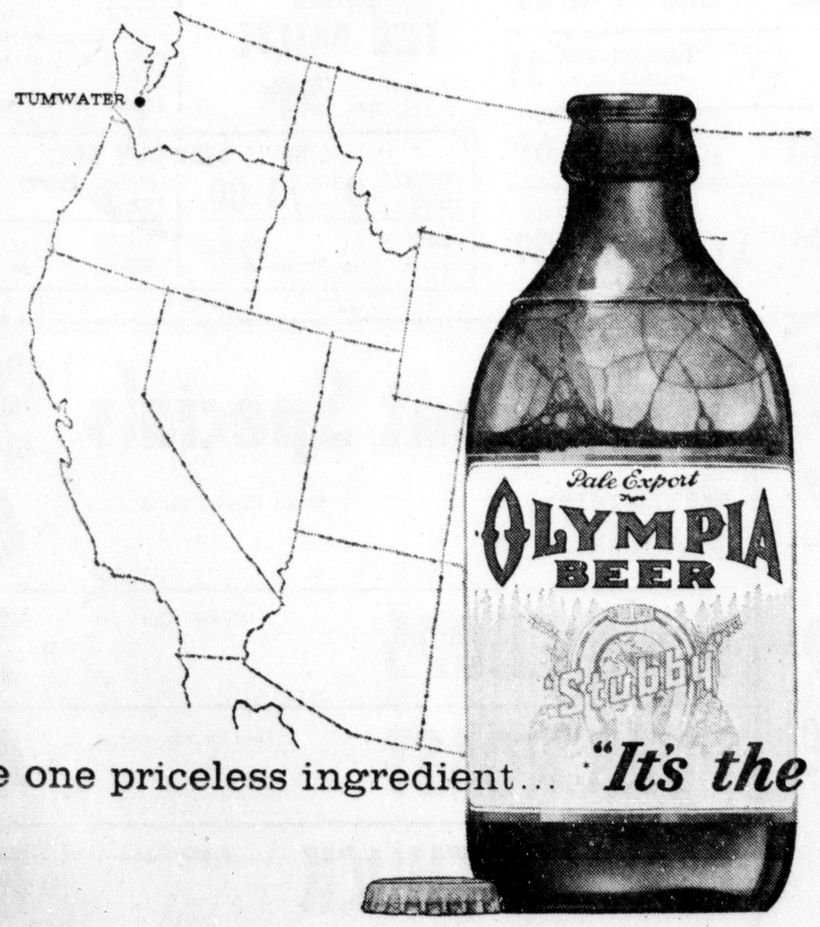

Kitty Oppenheimer, moderator of the program, announced the question will be worded a little differently in being presented to four educators on the discussion panel: Two from high school districts, one from a private school and one from University of California. It will be put to them as: "Would releasing results of college entrance English tests (subject A) by our high schools be unsound and misleading?"

Panelists will be Frank L. Lucas, superintendent of San Rafael schools; Robert P. Torrey, director of instruction of Tamalpais Union High School District; Edwin Dolan Jr., instructor in English at Three-R Schools in San Rafael, and David Von Becker, who teaches subject A English to University of California freshmen.

Questions received during the broadcast will be directed to the panelists. The program will be rebroadcast from a recording at 12:30 p.m. Sunday.

Why Olympia is brewed only at Tumwater

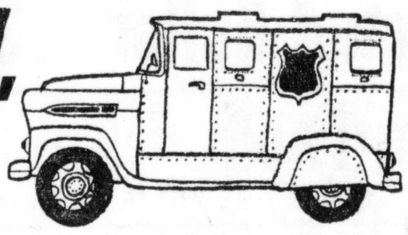

Since 1896, light Olympia Beer has been brewed at the little town of Tumwater, near Olympia, in Washington State. For it is here that Olympia's famed brewing water was discovered flowing cold and pure from deep artesian wells. At various times in the past, Olympia's founding family established other breweries along the Pacific Coast. Identical equipment and methods were employed. The same premium quality hops and grains were used. The best water supply available in each region was utilized. Yet, at none of these other locations was it possible to brew a beer of the character and quality which the name Olympia had come to represent. Without the one priceless ingredient—the naturally perfect brewing water—Olympia's refreshing flavor could not be duplicated elsewhere. That is why Olympia Beer is brewed only at Tumwater—and why Olympia's good taste remains refreshingly different yet always just the same.

Scots To Convene At Petaluma

Haggis will hang high at Petaluma Sunday when the clans rally for the 94th annual Scottish Gatherings and Games.

There will be entrants and spectators from all points along the coast.

In addition to contests in piping there will be others in Highland dancing, drumming and track and field events. A new event this year will be short soccer games between five-man teams from various Pacific Coast groups.

The celebration, to be held at the Petaluma fairgrounds, is sponsored by the Caledonian Club of San Francisco.

Marinites Injured In Car Accident

Two Marin residents who suffered cuts and bruises were among six persons injured in a two-car collision Sunday night on Highway 101 south of Cloverdale in Sonoma County.

Robert Dennis Lee of San Rafael, a railroad worker, was driving one of the cars southbound and was struck by a northbound car as he was attempting a left turn, according to the California Highway Patrol.

Lee and a passenger, Edith Alves of 6801 Ridgeway, Sausalito, were treated at the Medical Arts Building in Cloverdale.

Narcotics Addict To Serve 90 Days

Herbert Wood Jr., 24, of Ross, who surrendered to the Marin County sheriff as a drug addict two weeks ago, must serve 90 days in jail for violating the state Health and Safety Code.

Judge Harold J. Haley of Marin Municipal Court sentenced the former hospital worker Monday. Wood gets credit for time served in jail since he gave himself up on Aug. 11. At that time, Wood told Sheriff's Inspector Richard Argento he was taking about four ampules of Demerol a day. He said he picked up the habit while serving time in Soledad State Prison for a San Diego burglary.

VFW To Organize Sausalito Post

Formation of a new Sausalito post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars has been authorized by command H. R. Rainwater of the VFW's Department of California.

Don Loderback of 707 Bridgeway, Sausalito, has been named temporary chairman of the post, to be designated No. 7776. Eligibility to membership is established by service overseas during either world war, or the Korean conflict or battle campaign.

Inquiries may be addressed to Loderback.

Celebrities Help Open New Marin Lanes Tonight

The ever-growing array of big Bay Area bowling plants will add a swank new member tonight when the $1,500,000 Country Club Lanes stages its formal debut in San Rafael, aided by a group of well-known celebrities.

Only northern California strikery with a back yard swimming pool, the 40-lane Brunswick-built arena will hold opening ceremonies at 7 o'clock.

The internationally famous Wiere Brothers, now appearing at the Fairmont, Giant batting coach Lefty O'Doul, USF basketball coach Phil Woolpert, former world middleweight champion Fred Apostoli, current California State light-heavyweight king Sixto Rodriguez, acting San Quentin warden L. S. Nelson and civic officials of San Rafael and Marin County will participate.

EXHIBITION MATCHES

Pretty Wilma Guillory of Los Angeles, leading average lady of the nation with a striking 197, will bowl an exhibition match with Nobo Asumi, state all-events champ. Twelve-year-old Gene Helbing, one of the area's most widely known juvenile flingers, will bowl his little eight year old brother, Bob, in a junior match. Other teams from Marin, Hamilton Field and San Francisco will compete.

Located off Highway 101 at the southern edge of town, Country Club Lanes will be managed by Dave Rivera of San Francisco. It also features a gourmet style restaurant, night club type cocktail lounge with small dance band, a nursery and billiard salon.

'ACE' PLACES WIN SKEIN ON LINE TONIGHT

CAMDEN, N. J. (UPI)—Dick Tiger, British Empire middleweight champion, aimed to snap fourth-ranked George (Ace) Armstrong's 17-bout winning streak tonight and register the first victory of his U. S. invasion.

The 30-year-old Tiger, a bustling battler inside in contrast to most British boxers, hoped to cash in on the ring rustiness of his Elizabeth, N. J., opponent in their 10-nationally-televised bout. Armstrong, 27, has been idle more than six months—since victories over Eddie Dixon and Italo Scortichini.

Tiger, who hails from Amaigbo, Nigeria, met Rory Calhoun twice since invading these shores in quest of purses and a chance to boost his 38-8-2 log. He drew and lost a close decision to Calhoun.

Spengler Jr. Gains Nat'l Golf Berth

Paul Spengler Jr., smooth-swinging Meadow Clubber from Fairfax, yesterday joined a select group of northern California shot-makers who qualified for the National Amateur Golf Championships to be held at Colorado Springs Sept. 14-19.

The young Marinite successfully passed the 36-hole Northern Section qualifying test at Lake Merced with a 147 total, one stroke under the limit.

The other Northern Section qualifiers and their scores: Allen Geiberger, Fort Ord private, 142; Steve Opperman, Millbrae, 142; Charles Leider, San Mateo, 146; Bill McCool, San Francisco, 146; Ed Eichler, 148.

E. Harvie Ward, perennial threat from San Francisco was exempted from qualifying

DeJohn Flattens Sabedong In Five

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Mike DeJohn, 205, of Syracuse, N.Y., knocked out big Duke Sabedong, 217¾, of Hilo, Hawaii, in the fifth round of their scheduled 10-rounder last night.

DeJohn, a stablemate of Carmen Basilio, put Sabedong away with a left hook to the stomach at 1:35 of the fifth. Sabedong's left eye was partially closed in the second, but the Hawaiian came back to hold his own in a rough fourth.

Fights Last Night

BEAUMONT, Tex.—Donnie Fleeman, 181, Midlothian, Tex., outpointed Chief Alvin Williams, 182, Oklahoma City, 10.

SAN JOSE, Calif.—Eddie Chavez, 140, San Jose, outpointed Teddy (Red Top) Davis, 139, San Jose, 10.

Marin Fencers In Training For State Competition

They are Louis Gerdine, Nickolas Denton, George Bertic-evich and Miss "Topper" Martin. Practices are held at Lettermen General Hospital gymnasium in San Francisco.

Coleman announced fencing instruction will be available at the Lettermen gym each Thursday from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. beginning tomorrow. A fee will be charged and foils and masks will be provided by the Southern Marin Center.

'TAKE ME OUT TO BALL GAME' AUTHOR DIES

LAGUNA BEACH, Calif. (AP)—The man who wrote baseball's own song—"Take Me Out to the Ball Game"—died last night.

He was Jack Norworth, 80, song writer, actor and sports fan—once known as "the King of Vaudeville."

Norworth wrote "Take Me Out to the Ball Game" in 1908. He liked to recall that he had never seen a baseball game then and got his inspiration from an advertisement about a game at the Polo Grounds while riding the New York subway.

A baseball executive once said that Norworth's song did more to popularize and sentimentalize baseball than any other single factor in the game's history with the possible exception of Babe Ruth's fabulous bat.

J. C. Star Killed In Grid Practice

PAN-AMERICAN GAMES

U.S. Team Too Good; Coach Embarrassed

CHICAGO (AP)—The track and field phase of the third Pan-American Games ends today, but not the crunching United States' victory march which in five days of competition has produced 33 gold medals for Uncle Sam.

As the U.S.A.'s Olympic-point-making track squad seeks a last batch of titles in a seven-event program in Soldier Field, an equally powerful American swimming legion gets down to championship action in the spanking new Portage Park pool.

The one-sidedness of this 10-day Western Hemisphere athletic carnival is underscored by the fact that, beyond the United States, the only other gold medal winners have been Cuba, with two, and West Indies, Argentina, Mexico and Chile with one each.

There may be a few rays of Latin-American sunshine in today's skirmishing.

In track and field, defending champion Adhemar Ferreira da Silva is favored to win the hop-step-and-jump; the West Indies may upset the U.S.A. in the 1,600-meter relay; and Walter Lemos of Argentina is a strong contender in the marathon.

CUBAN FAVORED

In tennis, Chile's Luis Ayala meets Canada's Bob Bedard for the men's singles title, while the U.S.A.'s pro-minded Althea Gibson faces Yolanda Ramirez of Mexico, for the women's crown.

The U.S.A.'s powerful basketball team seeks its fourth triumph without defeat against El Salvador (0-3), while Canada (1-2) meets Puerto Rico (2-1).

The boxing competition finds the U.S.A. and Argentina each sending eight scrappers into semi-final battling.

As the U.S.A. completes its romp in track and field in huge Soldier Field where the blazing Pan-American torch blows out next Monday, Coach Jack Werner is downright embarrassed over his squad's almost complete domination of the games.

"And we're doing this without several great athletes who will be contenders for the Olympic Games in Rome next year," said Werner.

SHOT RECORD

Paced by world shotput champion Parry O'Brien and steeplechaser Phil Coleman, the U.S.A. grabbed five more track gold medals last night. Three American women won titles, including Lucinda Williams, the flash from Tennessee State, whose 200-meter triumph made her a double sprint winner; broad jumper Anne Smith; and high jumper Ann Flynn.

O'Brien and Coleman hung up impressive new Pan-Am records, 62-5½ in the shotput and 8:56.4 in the 3,000-meter steeplechase. Miss Smith notched a meet mark with an 18-9¾ broad jump.

In all, the U.S.A. now has won 14 of the 16 men's events and 7 of the 9 women's events, setting 11 new meet records for men and 4 for women.

However, there was a little change of pace last night as George Kerr, Big Ten star from the University of Illinois, led a 1-2-3 sweep for the West Indies in the 400 meter, and Cuba's Berta Diaz won the 80 meters women's hurdles in a record 11.2 time.

Meadow Club Senior Men's Tourney Set

The Meadow Club of Fairfax will hold its Senior Men's Tournament Sept. 12-13.

The tourney is a 36-hole medal play competition, with full handicaps, for club members aged 50 and over. Special flights are scheduled for older members: the President's Flight for those aged 70 and over, and the Directors' Flight for those aged 60-69.

Defending champion is Richard Fuite of Fairfax. Runner-up last year was Dr. R. Degenhardt.

The tourney will get under way with a breakfast Sept. 12. Starting times on the first tee start at 9 a.m. each day. Tournament winners will receive awards at 4:30 p.m. Sept. 13.

'Scratch' League Keg Meeting In Novato Tonight

A new major "scratch" bowling league, to be open only to bowlers with average scores of at least 150, will be formed at 8 o'clock tonight at Pete's Barber Shop, 1207 Grant avenue, Novato.

Proprietor C. J. (Pete) Peters and Aldo Paladini, both veteran bowlers, are organizing the league. Needed, they said, are enough members to form six or eight teams, which will bowl on Wednesday nights starting later this month.

Interested persons may sign up for the league by calling Peters, he said.

IDLE GIANTS GAIN GROUND

'Mental Block' Again Keeps Bums Shy Of League Lead

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

You'd think those Los Angeles Dodgers have a mental block when it comes to closing in on the National League lead.

Start in May. They were tied for first in mid-month, then lost five in a row and fell to fourth. It took 'em more than a month to get within a game of the top on June 28 after winning nine of 10. Then they lost four out of five.

They were only a half-game shy at the first All-Star game break. Then they lost five out of seven. Twelve days later, they were just a half-game behind only to lose three out of four.

They were first by a half-game July 29, then skidded to third. On August 8 they were only a half-game from first. Then they lost three straight.

Now they've missed again. After winning four of five, including two out of three from San Francisco, they had a chance to close within a half-game of the idle first-place Giants last night.

So what happens? Old nemesis Larry Jackson shut 'em out with a two-hitter and St. Louis was a 3-0 winner, dropping the Dodgers 1½ games behind.

The Giants made hay all around. Philadelphia cracked third-place Milwaukee 5-3, on pitcher Don Cardwell's two-run homer in the ninth. That left the Braves three games behind and just a half-game ahead of Pittsburgh's Pirates, whose game with Cincinnati was rained out.

In the American League, Detroit's Jim Bunning blanked Chicago 4-0, cutting the White Sox' edge over rain-idled Cleveland to five games. New York beat Baltimore 5-0 and Washington defeated Boston 7-4.

Jackson, 28, a right-hander with only a 51-50 record in the majors, upped his career record against the Dodgers to 12-5 while handing them their fifth shutout. He walked two, struck out four for a 12-12 season mark.

The Cards had only four hits, but two were home runs. Ken Boyer's 26th, a second-inning shot that extended his hitting streak to 20 games, ended Johnny Podres' winning string at four. Podres (12-8) also gave up Alex Grammas' third homer in the fourth inning and a double in the sixth by Don Blasingame, who stole third and scored on Grammas' squeeze bunt.

The other Cardinal hit, a seventh inning single by Bill White, was off reliever Stan Williams. Don Drysdale pitched the ninth for the Dodgers, fanning White to give the Dodger staff a total of 892, bettering their own N.L. strikeout record of 891 set in 1957.

Cardwell, who had managed just one hit in 43 at bats this year, discarded his regular 30-ounce bat, picked up a 40-ounce cannon and tagged Bob Buhl's first pitch for the tie-breaking homer at Milwaukee. His only other home run in the majors came when he was a rookie in '57.

The big right-hander, now 9-7 with his fourth straight victory, allowed only six hits, including Ed Mathews' 36th home run and Joe Adcock's 22nd.

Buhl (11-9) had a two-hit shutout until the sixth, when the last place Phils scored three runs, two on Gene Freese's triple.

Montreal Wants In Third Major League

MONTREAL (AP)—A group of Montreal businessmen has applied for a franchise in the projected third major baseball league.

By Richman, a building contractor, said he has been named spokesman for a group that is willing to finance a major league team here and already has started shopping for a manager.

With JOHN J. CONNOLLY

Connolly Sees Improvement–But Not Much–In Football's 49ers

CONNOLLY

For a good many years we have wondered why any sane man would accept a job as head football coach. This year our vote of sympathy goes to the new coach of the San Francisco Forty Niners, Howard "Red" Hickey.

At the close of the 1958 National Football League season when he took over the reins formerly held by Frank Albert, Hickey was faced with a monumental rebuilding job. The patient was dying of old age and a transfusion was needed, but quick.

Pass defense and running defense were weak. Running offense was dependent upon individual effort rather than team blocking. The 49er passing attack was as good as any in the league but was minimized because the opposition could and did stack the defense against the only potent weapon at hand.

A HURRY-UP CRY for help went out to Chief Scout Lynn "Pappy" Waldorf, and when the annual football draft came around the 49ers went out for great hunks of young manhood to beef up the sagging defenses with the hopes that a few of these man-mountains would also show up with a degree of speed and agility.

With the first half of the exhibition season in the books it is about time to take a critical look at some of the new blood on the 49er roster and to do some head hunting among the old timers.

One standout is big Charlie Krueger from Texas A & M. An eye-popping rookie until he was injured last year, Krueger must be considered a rookie until he has had a year under pressure, but at this point Charlie looks as rough, tough and capable as any of the veterans.

ANOTHER CINCH is defensive Eddie Dove of Colorado who moves among the pros with the same speed and decisive action he showed in college and in the Shrine game last year. Dove seems to have that extra touch that puts him in the right spot at the right time. He will make mistakes but the fine hand of new defensive coach Jack Christiansen should make him a fixture.

Up front, Dan James of Ohio State got a real workout as offensive center against the Cleveland Browns last Sunday. To these eyes, James left something to be desired. While his centering was adequate it was surprising to see how easily he was moved or evaded. Perhaps experience will help and he will probably get it as the 49ers need a man to free veteran Karl Rubke for line backing duties.

MONTE CLARK of USC used his six foot six and 255 pound frame to good advantage but has a lot to learn about the tackle slot in pro football. Tommy Davis of Louisiana State will probably stick for his field goal and conversion ability although Hickey may be forced to pick up a more experienced hand in this department unless Davis produces consistently under pressure.

Henry Schmidt of Trinity in Texas may make the grade as a tackle. Dave Baker of Oklahoma got in a lot of play as a defensive back but looks more than a little impulsive and erratic. Bob Harrison of the same school could make the grade if he learns enough fast enough.

There are other rookies who may be around after the next batch of cuts as I have a hunch the axe will fall next on some of the 49er veterans. Having the bread and butter cut out from under your next door neighbor or roommate is a terrific psychological weapon to shake the complacency of old timers.

ALL IN ALL the Forty Niner picture is one of slight improvement in defense cancelled out by inexperience of the rookies and another year of aging on the part of some veterans.

There is still no noticeable improvement in the ability of blockers to pull out of the line and get in front of a ball carrier in time to knock someone down. A speedster like Jim Pace has to be sprung free to be effective as Pace still crumples when the first hand is laid upon him. Runners like Hugh McElhenny who can carry the mail without blockers are few and far between, and Hurryin' Hugh isn't getting any younger.

It is still up to Y. A. Tittle, Joe Perry, McElhenny, Billy Wilson and "Alley-Oop" Owens to move the 49er offense; and the first four mentioned add up to a total of forty-one years of professional football experience.

Time is running out for the 49ers and I'm afraid Red Hickey will age more than a year in the next few months. You can watch the "old folks" on TV next Saturday when they meet the Chicago Cardinals in Seattle. See for yourself.

Registration Set Tomorrow For Bolinas, Stinson

Pupils in Bolinas and Stinson Beach schools will register tomorrow afternoon, Principals Richard Miller of Bolinas and Mrs. Mildred Sadler of Stinson Beach announced today.

Miller said the principals would like all children to register, even though they attended one of the schools last year, because of the new setup this year by which both districts will use both schools.

Registration will be from 1 to 4 p.m. Pupils in first, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades will register at Bolinas School, which they will attend. Second, third and fourth graders will register at Stinson Beach.

Bus schedules are to be announced later.

No More 'Cops'

VERGENNES, Vt. (UPI)—There wasn't a single "cop" around when 175 graduates of the FBI Academy held their annual convention here. They said "professionally trained lawmen aren't 'cops' any more; they're law enforcement officers."

Doe Possession Costs Men Fine

Robert Lee New, 36, owner of the car and of a rifle, must pay $75. His two passengers, Joseph Louis Beverly, 21, and Addie Warren Allen Jr., 22, were fined $50 and $35, respectively.

The men said they left San Francisco about 11 p.m. Monday for a ranch on Pt. Reyes where they hoped to go hunting yesterday morning. But when their car hit a doe, they decided that was enough game for the day and started home with the carcass in their trunk, the trio told Game Warden A. F. Giddings.

All three pleaded guilty to having an illegal deer in their possession.

Ex Loses Another

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Ezzard Charles lost another fight last night, but he isn't discouraged.

The 38-year-old former heavyweight champion, a trifle flabby around the middle, smiled after his 10-round loss to Alvin Williams, 21, and said he plans to continue fighting for three or four years."

"Decisions like this one might retire me, though," he added.

BYE BYE, BABY!—Mark Maas, 12, who played this year for the Taveggia-Brusati team in San Rafael's Little League, is ready for more baseball, but there's no place to play. The city's Little League ball park was being dismantled and league officials and parents were assembled Saturday to salvage what equipment they could and move it to the league's new diamond in southeast San Rafael. Little League Evicted From San Rafael Baseball Park

More than 50 parents and children assembled Saturday to tear down the San Rafael Little League ball park, condemned by the city to provide a right-of-way for a $100,000 street improvement project.

Many a sub-teen-age tear was shed and many a parent quoted the famed lines of Casey at the bat: "There was no joy in Mudville, mighty Casey had struck out," as they completed the task of razing the bleachers, backstops and fences that had been put up via donated labor, materials and money some seven years ago.

But mighty Casey and the Little League have another turn at bat.

Dispossessed, the directors have located a new park near the San Quentin overpass, have already started filling it for next spring and are starting a campaign to raise funds for the seeding, backstop, fences and erection of bleachers.

"We are lucky to have been relocated even though the building of the new park means a lot of work and sweat on the part of the participating parents," said Ron McLennan, president of the San Rafael National Little League.

The two Little Leagues with close to 500 kids, parents, coaches and managers contributing their time to the 18 different teams have been given a 10 year, $1-per-year-lease on 3.2 acres of property by Miss Winifred Bellam, owner of land to the east of the San Quentin road near the police pistol range.

Hustling parents and toiling teen-agers aided by 25 donated trucks have covered the swampy area with 6,500 yards of fill.

"We are starting a fund drive to raise $5,000 to provide the money for these facilities," McLellan said. "We have a benefit movie, a fashion show and other fund raising events slated."

Active Little League supporter Whitey Litchfield has been named chairman and Thomas W. King, president of the American League, co-chairman, along with McLellan. Attorney Joseph Wilson is in charge of the speaker's bureau.

Abandonment of the Little League park was necessitated when the city decided to push through a 56-foot right of way past the parking lot, extending to Irwin street.

The new ball park will provide plenty of parking, two full diamonds, bleachers and backstops.

"Sponsors, merchants, contractors and parents have helped immeasurably with donated time, material, equipment and money," McLellan said," but we still have a long way to go. The diamonds must be seeded and ready for play when the league resumes next May."

Like Casey, mighty Casey, the Little League may have struck out at the old ball park but with a 10 year lease on a new one, 6,500 yards of fill, a fund raising drive under way, they are at bat once more with the bases loaded, enthusiastic fans back of them, and swinging from the heels for a home run and a new ball park this spring, McLellan said.

Dallas Club Suffers $85,000 Loss In '59

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—The owner of Dallas' American Assn. baseball club says his loss this season will be at least $85,000.

It is the second straight year for a baseball financial loss for the wealthy Dallas contractor, J. W. Bateson. He said he dropped from $60,000 to $100,000 last year when Dallas was in the Texas League.

Dallas operates without a major league hookup.

Fire-Fighting Planes

EDMONTON, Alberta (AP)—In the fight against forest fires this year, aircraft of the Alberta Forest Service will each be equipped with two 45-gallon tanks which can be filled with water while the plane is taking off from a lake or river, to be sprayed on blazes.

Gifford Too Good A Halfback To Get N.Y. Quarterback Job

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

That's the verdict from the Giant camp after three exhibition games and weeks of intensive training in which Gifford, an all-pro halfback, was given an opportunity to qualify as the No. 1 signal-caller.

Al Sherman, Coach Jim Lee Howell's chief aide, summed it up.

"I think Frank could qualify as a quarterback but we had the understanding with him that value to the team would determine his position, and there's no doubt on that point. Who's better at halfback?"

TRIPLE THREAT

A versatile performer, Gifford is a triple threat from the halfback post, capable of running for the long-gainer, passing for a TD or breaking away to snare a pass.

"Gifford is a great athlete," said Howell, who directed the Giants to the Eastern Division title last season. "If he had the experience he'd be a great quarterback. But we're running short of time."

There are three other good reasons why Gifford flunked the test—quarterbacks Charlie Conerly, George Shaw and Lee Grosscup.

CONERLY STARS

Conerly, in his 12th season with the Giants, virtually clinched the starting quarterback role with his flawless passing and signal-calling as New York clobbered Detroit 38-0 Saturday night.

Acquired from Baltimore where he was overshadowed by Johnny Unitas, Shaw likely will split the passing chores with the 34-year-old Conerly. "Shaw has looked very good," says Howell. "I like his throwing, his ballhandling, and his generalship."

Grosscup, top Giant draft choice, made his debut in sensational fashion against the Lions, heaving a 55-yard scoring aerial. The former Utah star figures prominently in the Giants future plans.

Chavez Beats 'Red Top'

SAN JOSE (AP)—Eddie Chavez, 140, took a unanimous 10-round decision from Teddie "Red Top" Davis, 139, last night. There was no knockdown in the almost uneventful bout between the two San Jose fighters.

THEIR RECIPE for Rice Pilaff is one of the attractions of the Oriental dinner given each year by Strawberry Guild No. 2 of Sunny Hills with all foods cooked by members. Rice Pilaff Good Dinner Variation

The "Oriental Fantasy" dinner dance which Strawberry Guild No. 2 of Sunny Hills has held for the past four years is noted for its elegant food.

The girls who do their own cooking serve a Cantonese menu. The highlight of the menu is rice pilaff, a recipe by Mrs. Robert L. Candrian, which is simple and has a rich and satisfying flavor.

RICE PILAFF

- 1 tablespoon soy sauce
- 1 cube butter
- 1 grated onion
- 1 cup uncooked rice
- 2 cups consomme (1 can diluted)

Method: Saute onion in butter until golden. Brown the rice and add boiling consomme all at once. Stir. Cover tightly and cook over low heat about 45 minutes to 1 hour. Serves four.

The 19 members of Strawberry Guild No. 2 of Sunny Hills concentrate on carrying on the booth originally started by the late Mrs. John T. Beales at the Grape Festival.

New Cheese Spread For Crackertime

When the September sun is going down, about an hour or so before dinner—that's the perfect time to take a cold drink and some light hors d' oeuvres to the patio. It's the best way there is to end a long, warm day and begin a long, cool evening. Indeed, the cool reality should equal the warm anticipation.

One of the most refreshing pre-dinner drinks to come along is iced caffe espresso—a refreshing pick-up that needs only a long twist of lemon peel for color.

When it's served over cracked ice in a footed glass, it's as romantic and sophisticated as its wintertime counterpart. Moreover, iced espresso will be particularly welcomed by those who don't take cocktails, but enjoy the pre-dinner festivities.

The hors d'oeuvres that go with iced espresso should be light and cool and just as interesting as the beverage. A new, unusual appetizer is Creamy Cheddar Mold, a smoothie to spread on crackers. The mold is made with cottage cheese and cheddar cheese and an assortment of seasonings.

Equally attractive are fruit kebabs, appetizers that are fun to eat and just as much fun to prepare. For color variation, use berries, melon balls, banana slices, any fresh fruit that's colorful and good. String the fruit on skewers, one for each person, roll them in lemon juice to retain the color and serve the kebabs chilled.

CREAMY CHEDDAR MOLD

- 2 envelopes unflavored gelatine
- ½ cup cold water
- 2 teaspoons instant minced onion
- 2 cups milk
- 2 cups fine-curd creamed cottage cheese
- 2 cups grated sharp cheddar cheese
- ¼ teaspoon Tabasco
- 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
- 1 tablespoon prepared horseradish
- ¼ teaspoon coarsely ground black pepper
- 1 teaspoon celery salt

Soften gelatine in cold water. Add onion to milk; heat to scalding. Add to gelatine and stir until gelatine dissolves. Chill until slightly thickened. Combine remaining ingredients and fold into thickened gelatine mixture. Spoon into five-cup mold. Chill until firm.

Mushroom Green Beans

Ingredients: 1 pound snap beans, ¾ cup boiling water, ¾ teaspoon salt, 2 tablespoon butter or margarine, 1 medium-sized onion (quartered and cut into thin strips), 1 can (6 ounces) sliced mushrooms, pepper.

Method: Cut tips from beans; scrub in cold water; drain. Cut in half crosswise and lengthwise. Cook rapidly in 1-quart saucepan with boiling water and salt, covered, until just tender-crisp — about 12 minutes.

Lift cover and turn over beans a few times while cooking; drain. Meanwhile brown onion in butter in 8-inch skillet; add drained mushrooms and heat; mix with drained beans. Add freshly-ground pepper to taste. Reheat if necessary. Makes 6 servings.

Tunic Silhouette

The tunic silhouette, back in force, has two main shapes—the slim tunic for daytime costumes and the bell shape for evening.

Schooltime Means Sandwich Spread Ideas Are Welcomed

Any galloping poll of growing boys and girls would reveal that peanut butter goes into more sandwiches for filling them up than does any other single product. Almost every American home considers it a staple item. Not only is it delicious all by itself but it combines well with dozens of other things.

Rich in protein, peanut butter can be used lavishly by the slim Jims and Joans who need to add a few pounds, sparingly by the weight watchers who while watching calories still want taste treats and some high nutrition foods. Some like crunch-style; others prefer it creamy.

SANDWICH SUGGESTIONS

Many children settle for just lots of peanut butter between bread slices; others like change and variety. Some combinations may be mixed ahead, stored in separate containers in refrigerator and used in rotation. These include finely chopped celery and green pepper and peanut butter . . . deviled ham and peanut butter . . . chopped date or raisins and peanut butter. Grated carrot mixes well, too. Sweet tooths like marmalade or jam combinations.

For a soft, fast spreading filling, thin peanut butter with catsup or chili sauce or milk. For straight-from-the-jar variations, spread one slice of bread with peanut butter and add a thick slice of tomato or a thin one of sweet onion before topping with second bread slice.

Real mayonnaise as well as butter or margarine are favorite bread spreaders along with the peanut butter.

NO-BREAD SUGGESTIONS

For no-bread sandwiches, peel and core 2 large apples; slice in ¼ inch slices. Blend ½ cup peanut butter and 2 tablespoons real mayonnaise. Spread on half the apple slices; top with remaining slices. Eight fruity, nutty, no starch delicacies!

Or take good long sticks of crisp celery and stuff with peanut butter. These, cut shorter, by the way, are very good on waldorf or other sandwich luncheon plate.

For Sunday Night Try A Casserole

A warm weather dish, light yet substantial, is the "Sunday Night Casserole," a satisfying end to a day of recreation. Served with cold cuts and an iced drink, it makes a delicious course for a family menu or adds that extra touch to a company buffet.

This recipe calls for frozen broccoli, but other frozen or left-over vegetables such as cauliflower or asparagus, are equally good.

SUNDAY NIGHT CASSEROLE

- 6 hard-cooked eggs
- 1 package frozen broccoli, cooked until almost tender
- 2½ cups prepared package stuffing
- 4 tablespoon butter
- 4 tablespoon flour
- ½ teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon minced onion
- 3 cups milk
- 1 cup grated Cheddar and ¼ cup parmesan cheese
- ¼ cup butter melted in ¼ cup hot water.

In a buttered, shallow baking dish, distribute 1 cup of packaked prepared stuffing. On this arrange drained broccoli; then eggs, halved or quartered lengthwise. In saucepan melt butter, blend in flour and salt. Stir to thick paste. Add onion, then milk. Stir constantly until thickened. Pour over casserole.

Top with remainder of stuffing crumbs blended with butter, hot water, and cheese. Bake in hot oven (400 F.) 25-30 minutes, or until lightly browned and bubbly. Garnish with dashes of paprika and strips of green pepper, or parsley. Serves 4 to 6.

Ensemble

Hats, hair and dress silhouettes have entered a three-way partnership for a complete ensemble look, says analysts for Women's Wear Daily, a trade publication. Hats have tall graceful shapes to balance the width of the silhouette; evening clothes are opulent to go with cocktail hats; and hat and hair are styled to go together.

LAMB LOVES MINT: Serve broiled chops with minted green peas, carrots and rice and a crisp salad of lettuce, tomatoes and green pepper.

Grilled Lamb Chops Take On Extra Flavor With Tomatoes

Lamb goes hand in hand with herbs. Want to read and taste?

Leg of lamb with one of the best sauces cooks ever dreamed up—made from fine vinegar, sugar and fresh mint that usually grew in gardens but nowadays may come from the corner market.

Classic lamb kebabs, after an overnight stay with olive oil, onion and oregano, skewered and broiled over charcoal.

Then there are rich brown lamb chops for a quick main dish from the broiler. Fresh green peas with scallions, a little mint and a dollop of butter with these. What could be better?

But those chops can be juicy and tender or dry and tough. To have the first, you need to follow the French cooks who serve their lamb a trifle pink. We know this suggestion goes against American culinary folkways. But do yourself a favor and just once try it. If you're not convinced, you can put the chops back under the broiler!

Like rice with lamb? Then sometimes add butter (plenty of it), curry powder (to suit yourself) and grated orange rind to the rice. Or take a leaf from Armenian cookery and add pine nuts and currants.

And now's the time for that famous duo — grilled lamb chops with broiled tomatoes. The French usually add sprigs of water cress to this for a crisp green garnish.

Ingredients: 1 teaspoon salt, ⅛ teaspoon white pepper, 1 tablespoon finely grated onion (pulp and juice), 1 small clove garlic (crushed), 4 loin lamb chops (¾ to 1 inch thick), 2 medium-sized tomatoes (cut in half crosswise), 1 teaspoon butter, paprika.

Method: Mix the salt, pepper, onion and garlic. Spread a little of the mixture over one side of each chop; broil several inches from source of heat until browned. Turn chops and spread other sides with a little of the seasoning. Spread cut sides of tomatoes with remaining seasoning; dot with butter. Sprinkle top sides of chops and tomatoes with paprika.

Return chops to broiler with tomatoes and finish broiling; by the time chops are done tomatoes should be cooked through. Count on about 12 to 18 minutes broiling time for the grill. Makes 2 to 4 servings.

Add a generous dash of paprika to batter when French frying onion rings. Garnish with more paprika when fried to a golden brown.

FOR A RARE TREAT

Chateaubriand Is Barbecued And Served Sliced In Sauce

Curiosity about outer space may increase our appetite for adventure, but earthly appetites for rich, juicy steak seem to take on cosmic proportions, too. Here is a star of the barbecue the family-size Chateaubriand, which can be carved and served in slices with Satellite Sauce for elegant entertaining or as French-dip sandwiches for a more informal gathering.

Any one of the beef cuts listed below, prepared with meat tenderizer to insure juiciness, tenderness, and fullness of flavor, makes a heavenly barbecue for family and friends.

1. Top round
2. Sirloin tip
3. Botton round
4. Heel of round
5. Round bone chuck

INGREDIENTS (6 SERVINGS)

1 family-size steak, selected from cuts above

SATELLITE SAUCE

1 cup tomato sauce
½ cup California red wine
1 tablespoon brown sugar
1 teaspoon meat tenderizer
¼ cup butter or margarine
1 tablespoon prepared mustard
1 tablespoon Worcestershire
1 clove garlic, pressed or minced
¼ cup fresh chopped parsley

In Advance:

1. Sprinkle both sides of steak with seasoned meat tenderizer as you would salt; do not add salt.

2. Work in deeply at one-inch intervals with sharp kitchen fork, to insure penetration of the tenderizer and seal in juices and flavor.

3. Let stand at room temperature 1 hour, or cover loosely and refrigerate overnight.

4. Combine all ingredients for sauce except parsley and simmer 5 minutes. Cool, then refrigerate until barbecue time.

At Barbecue Time:

When charcoal is gray, shot with a ruddy glow, brush steak with Satellite Sauce and place on grill; cook 35 minutes for rare, 38 minutes for medium, frequently turning and basting with sauce.

When steak is finished, remove from grill; let stand on meat board 5 minutes; then carve in diagonal slices against the grain, about ¼ inch thick.

To serve, ladle Satellite Sauce over each serving. If you wish to serve the steak slices in French-dip sandwiches, have hard-crusted French rolls ready—heated and cut in half; dip each half of roll into sauce, place steak slices generously on rolls, and serve with crisp pickle slices. More sauce can also be ladled over the sandwiches if they are to be served open-faced.

Accompaniments to put in orbit around the steak are a huge relish tray of crisp vegetables—green onions, carrots, celery, radishes; hot corn on the cob—wrapped in foil and roasted on the grill; and ice-cold watermelon cut in long, thin wedges and served on a stick.

To heat commercially canned vegetables, drain the liquid into a saucepan and boil it rapidly before adding the vegetable to heat.

Macaroni-Beef Is Buffet Dish

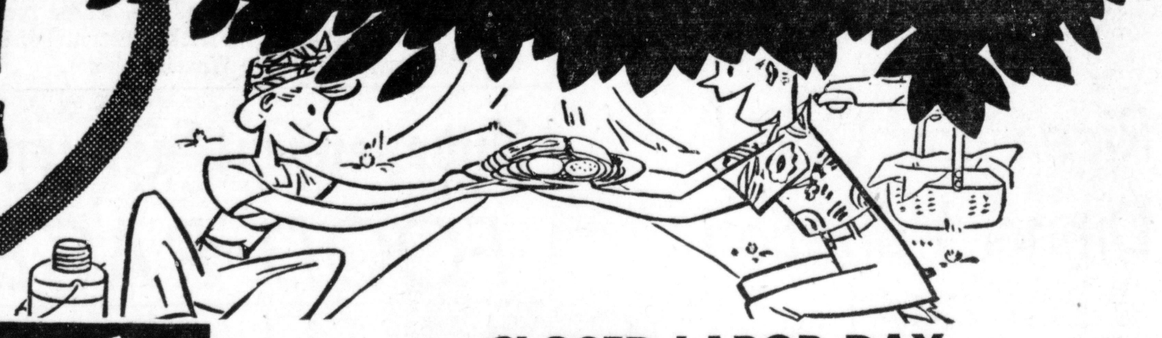

Ingredients: 1 package (8 ounces) elbow macaroni, 3 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1 medium-sized onion (finely chopped), 6 medium-sized mushrooms (sliced through cap and stem), 1 pound ground chuck beef, 1 can (10¼ ounces) Italian-type meatless mushroom sauce, 1 can (10¼ ounces) Italian-type meatless marinara sauce, ¼ cup minced parsley, grated Parmesan cheese.

Method: Cook macaroni according to package directions; drain. Meanwhile melt butter in 10-inch skillet; add onion and mushrooms; cook until onion is yellowed. Add beef; mash with a fork until it loses its red color. Mix in sauces and parsley; heat.

Mix with drained macaroni. Turn into two casseroles (5 to 6 cups each); sprinkle each with ¼ cup Parmesan. Bake in moderate (350 degrees) until bubbling hot—about 20 minutes. Serve with extra Parmesan. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

AT CARMEL MISSION

Carol Smith Weds James Fitzgerald

Pale yellow and white was the color scheme for the recent wedding in Carmel at which Carol Lee Smith became the bride of James Andrew Fitzgerald. The nuptial mass, at 12:30 p.m., took place in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel at historic Mission San Carlos Borromeo, with the Rev. Adolf Anderson of Palo Alto, a cousin of the bridegroom, officiating. Family members and close friends attended the wedding.

The altar was decorated with white gladioli and chrysanthemums and bouquets of the same flowers were caught to the pews. The bride was escorted to the altar by her father, Lyle W. Smith of San Rafael. She wore a white imported organdy ballerina length gown, designed with a square neckline and bouffant skirt. White appliqued flowers were on the gown. The bride's coronet of seed pearls was especially treasured by her as it had been worn by several members of the bridegroom's family. A white shoulder length veil fell from the coronet and the bride carried a bouquet of white bouvardia and cattleya orchids.

Marguerite Grandy, maid of honor, donned a white organdy over pale yellow taffeta gown which had a pale yellow taffeta cummerbund. Her headpiece was also of yellow taffeta and she carried a crescent shaped bouquet of yellow and white carnations.

Mrs. Smith, mother of the bride, wore a seafoam peau de soie sheath dress with matching hat.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Maurice Fitzgerald of San Francisco and the late Mr. Fitzgerald. For the wedding the senior Mrs. Fitzgerald wore a fawn colored silk dress with matching hat and accessories. Her flowers were white orchids.

The Garden Room of the La Playa Hotel in Carmel, overlooking the Pacific, was the setting for the reception and wedding breakfast.

Kathleen Degnan, cousin of the bride, was in charge of the guest book and Catherine Mary McCarthy, a cousin of the bridegroom, assisted in receiving. Much appreciated was the attendance of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lynch, brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom, who, the day before, had returned from a trip abroad.

When the newlyweds left for their honeymoon in southern California, the new Mrs. Fitzgerald was wearing a Dior blue wool dress and matching hat. Her accessories were black patent leather and a white orchid was pinned to the shoulder of her dress. On return the young couple will reside in Kentfield.

The bride, whose father is district manager for the Pacific Gas and Electric Co. is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John W. Degnan, a pioneer family of Eureka, and Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Smith of Corvalis, Ore. She attended San Francisco College for Women and Dominican College.

Sausalito Nursery School Holds New Members Orientation Meet

The Sausalito Nursery School held an Orientation meeting at the school for all new members this morning. Parents interested in registering for the fall term attended.

At the meeting, new members were greeted by the director, Mrs. Jacqueline Cook; assistant director, Mrs. Barbara Prather, the officers and board of directors. Coffee and light refreshments were served.

A board of directors meeting was held Monday at the home of the president, Mrs. Edward Ripley. Other officers for the coming semester which begins Sept. 10 are: Mesdames Craig Sharpe, vice president, parent education; David Minniear, vice president, membership and admission; Robert Berdahl, treasurer; Gilbert P. Murphy, recording secretary; Richard Urbais, publicity and Charles Van Kriedt, car pool chairman. Mrs. Ripley has named Mrs. Roumald Krajeski as purchasing agent and will announce the balance of committee chairmen after the opening of school.

GUEST SPEAKERS

Plans are being made to have guest speakers on various aspects of child raising at each monthly general membership meeting. These meetings are to enable parents of children attending the school to discuss any problems that might arise and become familiar with the safety rules of the school, its policies and procedures and to enjoy an informal social evening with other parents in their own age group.

For those not acquainted with the Sausalito Nursery School, it is located at 625 Main street. Its term is the same as that of a public school, starting Sept. 10 and concluding in June of next year. The sessions are from 9 a.m. to 11:45 a.m. five days a week. Each mother co-operates and drives a car pool group one day a week, with the exception of working mothers. Attendance gives pre-school children an opportunity to learn sharing, various crafts and to have the same age playmates. The session includes easel painting, clay modeling, games, puzzles, story time, daily snack and juice time, tricycles, large play house, a variety of climbing equipment and field trips to Marin points of interest.

NOT LIMITED

The school is not limited to residents of Sausalito. There is already one car pool operating from the Tam-Valley Mill Valley area. The building is inspected regularly by state officials but is in no way governed by state authorities except on the basis of Safety and Health codes. This makes it a truly co-operative and self maintained school.

Any parent interested in becoming a member of this group may obtain the needed information by calling Mrs. David Minniear. There are only a few vacancies open for the fall term.

Two Social Bridge Hours Are Planned At Marin Center

A series of two social bridge hours, Wednesday mornings and evenings weekly, will begin at the Southern Marin Recreation Center today, according to activities chairman Mrs. George Berticevich.

The morning session will be held from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. with Mrs. Robert Bilger as hostess. The evening session will start at 7:30 p.m. and end at 11 p.m., with Dr. Albertine Nash as hostess. Couples or singles may register for the evening bridge hours.

Center members may play without charge. Non-members will pay a slight fee, Mrs. Berticevich said. Further information may be obtained from the Center offices in Tiburon.

HAWAIIAN CHANT, HULA DANCE LESSONS ARE OFFERED AT CENTER

Registrations are now open at the Southern Marin Recreation Center for a series of six lessons in both the art of hula dancing and the accompaniment of ancient Hawaiian chant dances with native implements, Mrs. George Berticevich, activities chairman, said today.

The lessons will be given every Saturday afternoon from Sept. 19 to Oct. 24 with hula lessons scheduled for 1 to 2 p.m. and implement lessons set for 2 to 3 p.m. Registrations will close Sept. 16 for the series.

The use of pebbles, puili sticks, coconut shells and other native objects used in the accompaniment of the ancient chants will be taught by Eldora Santos of San Francisco. A fee will be charged members and non-members for the lessons.

Family Fun Is Planned Labor Day

An all-day program of "family fun" is being planned for Southern Marin Recreation Center members on Labor Day, according to activities chairman Mrs. George Berticevich.

A swimming meet followed by water games will start at 9:30 a.m. in the morning and is scheduled to end at noon. During the swimming pool events, spectators will be served coffee. Danish pastries and gin fizzes by the LARC's women's auxiliary to the Center. Colorful carts will be used by LARC members to dispense the refreshments to the bleacher seated watchers.

Members may swim from noon until 2 p.m., when the relay races will be run in the pool for teen-age members. After the hour-long races, the pool will again be open until 7 p.m. for members and their families for swimming.

The snack bar will be open for those wishing to lunch during the festivities, Mrs. Bertevich said. Further information on the contests to be held during the day in the pool may be obtained by calling the Center offices in Tiburon or by contacting activities chairman, Mrs. Berticevich.

San Pedro P-TA To Fete Seven New Teachers

Seven new teachers will be honored at a welcoming luncheon to be given Sept. 9 by the San Pedro School P-TA. The luncheon, which will be given at the school, will welcome teachers Miss Jane Allen, Mrs. Patricia Sarant, Miss Sadra Butters, Mrs. Norma Geissberger, Mrs. Doris Youtz, Mrs. Mary McNall and Mrs. Joyce McCaffrey.

The luncheon will also serve as a first get-together of the new San Pedro School P-TA. Mrs. G. William Magladry is the new president, Mrs. James McFarlane first vice president, Mrs. Ronald McLennan, corresponding secretary, Mrs. E. C. MacDonald, recording secretary, and Mrs. G. W. Colberg, treasurer.

World's Women Have To Decide On Idea Of The Bared Knee-Cap

By PAT HERMAN

PARIS (UPI)—The news pictures of this year's Paris Fashions have been released. And the world's women can decide for themselves whether they like the idea of bared kneecaps.

The actual showings were held a month ago. But, under the rules set up by the syndicate that controls Paris high fashion, no one was permitted to publish photographs of the new styles until now.

The big battle this time was over the kneecap. Should it be bared or covered?

Virtually all the Paris dressmakers, whose fall and winter dresses soon will be available in copies to American women, showed skirts that discreetly covered that part of the female anatomy.

But the pace-setting House of Dior that made its name in 1947 by dropping skirts to the "New Look" ankle length decided to be different.

Dior's designer Yves Mathieu Saint-Laurent hiked up hemlines to the kneecap and above. He had with him in the shorter skirt camp Spanish designer Cristobal Balenciaga. He lifted skirt lengths to one inch below the kneecap.

The House of Dior bucked virtually every fashion trend that the other custom dressmakers established.

WIDENED SLEEVES

The House of Dior left waists where they should be.

Other Paris dressmakers dropped them slightly in line with the long torso line that swept most of the collections.

Even the House of Dior's evening gowns were dramatically slashed up to the kneecap.

Most other designers, including imaginative Balenciaga, brought back floor length evening gowns in force.

Despite these divertent tendencies, there were certain features that ran through all the collections.

Daytime dresses were easy fitting. Many were two pieced in effect. Tunic dresses were prominent.

Suits outnumbered dresses for daytime wear. Most of them had longer jackets and accentuated shoulders. Many were trimmed in fur. Some had removable capes and broad belts. Suit skirts—even at Dior's—tended to be slim and straight. The House Nina Ricci, which last season started the return of the longer torso line showed particularly handsome suits of this type.

Coats were voluminous. Many for both day and evening were reversible. Some had sleeves so wide that the models were able to show them by tucking their arms into the sleeves in criss-cross fashion. Colors—except at the House of Dior—tended to be subdued.

There were all shades and gradations of brown and of lilac. Pierre Cardin brought down the house with a series of outfits that showed three shades of a color in pale, medium and dark variations.

BOLD PLAIDS

Mohairs and tweeds and chenille were important daytime fabrics. There were many bold plaids and tiny checks in both suits and coats.

Hats covered the head. When they had brims these were often fur trimmed or lined in the fabric of the outfit they accompanied.

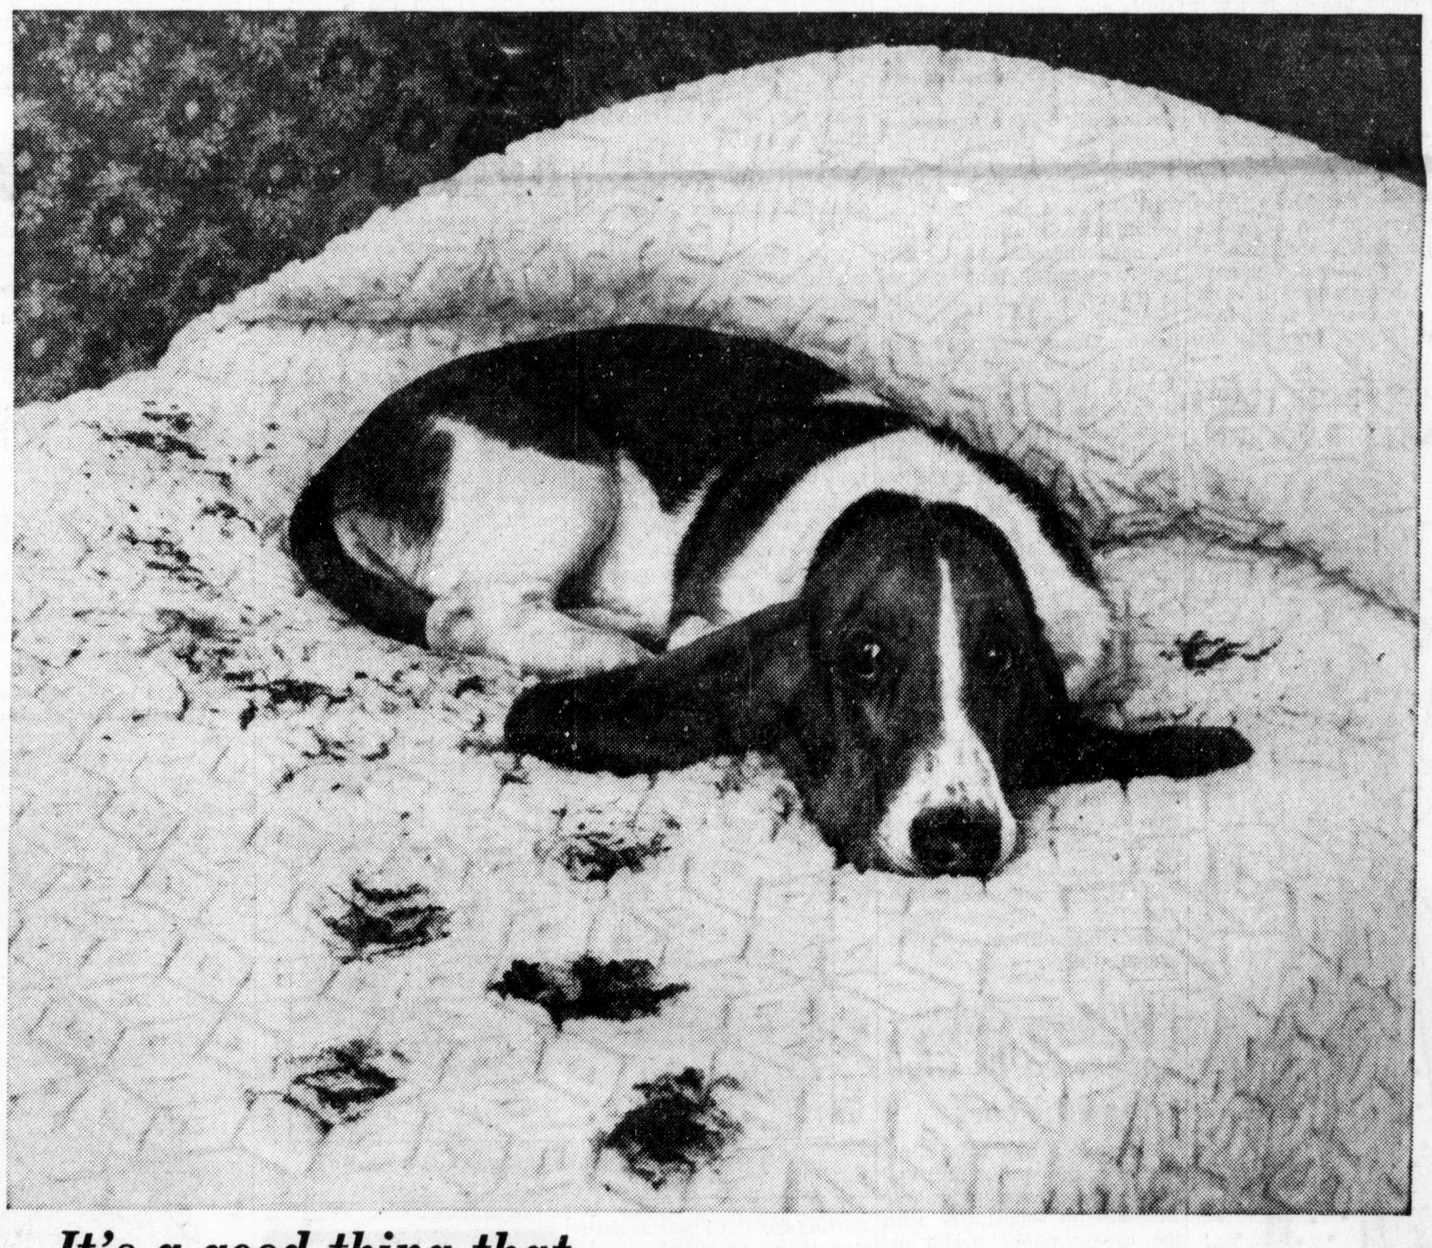

Important evening news was the return of the floor length pencil slim dress. (At Jean Patou's these were so slinky that they would have done Marlene Dietrich in her hey-dey justice). Shorter skirted cocktail dresses were worn under voluminous satin evening coats. Many of these were reversible.

Fur was used in profusion as belts and collars on evening gowns. There was a strong Oriental influence in the use of rich brocade and of the kimono-styled sleeve.

It's a good thing that

Why does one washday product do a better job than another? Because it works the hardest. And the one that keeps on working after the others quit is Tide.

MR. AND MRS. William Locke Whitney Austin cut the wedding cake at the reception following their recent marriage in St. Paul's Episcopal Church in San Rafael. The bride is the former Gretchen Bach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred C. Bach of San Rafael.

Mary Leech Bride Of Ronald Sandstrom

Mary Kathleen Leech became the bride of Ronald Arthur Sandstrom Saturday afternoon in a 3 o'clock ceremony in the Mill Valley Episcopal Church of Our Saviour.

Family members and close friends only were present when the bride was given in marriage by her father, H. B. Leech of Mill Valley.

For the double ring rites, performed by the Rev. D. Murray Hammond, the altar was decorated with white flowers. Mary Kathleen recited her vows in a ballerina length frock of pink organdy trimmed with white lace. It had a full skirt and fitted bodice with scoop neckline and three-quarters sleeves.

Bridesmaid was the only sister of the bridegroom, Lorraine Sandstrom. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sandstrom of Mill Valley.

After spending a few days at Clear Lake, the young couple will live at 427 Rose avenue in Mill Valley.

The new Mrs. Sandstrom will begin her junior year at Tamalpais High School this fall. She has three brothers, Robert, who is attending the University of British Columbia; Tom, who is attending the University of California; and Bill, a ninth grade student.

Ronald is also a graduate of Tamalpais High School and will be in his second year at the College of Marin, where is preparing for a career in pharmacy.

MARRIED IN A recent ceremony at Novato's Our Lady of Loretto Catholic Church were Nancy Phinney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Phinney of Novato, and Alfred John Cazzaniga. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Floy Fain of Novato, and A. J. Cazzaniga of Susanville. The couple will make their home in Stockton, where the bridegroom is assigned on naval duty. (Kennedy photo)

'Co-Ho-No' Ball Set At The Mark

Despite vacation days an active committee for the College of the Holy Names Alumnae Assn. Ball of the College of the Holy Names in Oakland, met recently at the home of Mrs. F. Harold Buttrick on Longridge road in Oakland, in order to finalize plans for the gala dance.

The traditional "Co-Ho-No" Ball will be held at the Hotel Mark Hopkins in San Francisco, Saturday, Nov. 7th from 10 to 2 p.m. Mrs. Walter Crinnion, chairman of the ball committee conducted the meeting.

Mrs. John Richard of San Rafael is on the comittee for special arrangements.

Marin Nile Club Holds Luncheon For New Members

The Marin Nile Club welcomed two members at its recent luncheon meeting at Rickey's Rancho Rafael.

Those welcomed by President Marion Klyce were Elsie Hirst, past queen of Menzalek Temple No. 16, Sacramento, and Josephine Smith, past matron of the Mill Valley Chapter of Eastern Star.

Special guests were Queen Edith Watson and Past Queens Hilda Hampton and Kathryn Winslow of Islam Temple No. 25, Daughters of the Nile.

The club's project this year is to help supply toys, books and dolls for the toy cart at the Shrine Hospital. The club has sent over 40 dolls this year, some large and some small, with complete wardrobes, as well as story books and toys.

The Shrine Hospital for Crippled Children on 19th and Lawton avenues in San Francisco is non-sectarian and free of charge. For children who have to wear braces there is a national convalescent relief fund that all Shrine hospitals can draw on.

Well Baby Clinic Sponsored By Club Over 20 Years

Although a well baby clinic has been sposored by Mill Valley's Outdoor Art Club for over 20 years, in cooperation with the county public health department, its services have not been much publicized.

The clinic is operated at the Outdoor Art Clubhouse every month throughout the year for Mill Valley and Tiburon families who cannot afford medical care for children up to school age. A doctor and nurses are in attendance from 9 a.m. to 12 noon every first and third Thursday and every third Wednesday of each month.

Services include regular well baby check-ups and immunization shots, including those for polio. Approximately 40 patients have been cared for each month.

Mrs. Richard Clarke, who is starting her third year as chairman of this project, has a volunteer group of club members consisting of Mesdames Clay Lilleston, L. A. Lowenthal, Maynard Sears, Philip Schafer and Alan M. Shearer.

Mrs. Clarke, with whom appointments may be made, and her volunteers give many hours a month assisting public health doctor Marlyn Hicks and nurses Ethel Kelsey and Margaret Halliday. The volunteers serve for at least a one-year period.

RHODE ISLAND

Wives Jump Off The Deep End

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (AP) — Rhode Island's first all-woman skin diving club was organized practically of necessity — the men wanted to be alone.

The club's president, Mrs. Walter W. Blackinton of Warwick, R.I., says most men skin divers don't like to "buddy up" with women, even their wives.

The women were determined to show the men that they belonged as much in the water as out. Now the ladies don neoprene suits, snorkels, fins and face masks and spend Sundays skin diving and spearfishing near the rocks of nearby Sakonnet Point.

Officially known as the Rhode Island Sea Gals, Inc., the club requires members to be women, 21 years old, and either have a senior life saving certificate or be able to pass an equivalent test.

The husband of one of the members, Gil R. Simmons of Coventry, R.I., instructs the women in Wednesday night meetings at the Pawtucket Boys' Club pool. Although most of the women are novices at skin diving, some have nailed striped bass and tautog with spear guns.

Mrs. Blackinton says that other than being an expert swimmer, a skin diver must not have claustophobia.

Before actual diving, the women are taught breath control in a pool. "You have to know how to clear your face mask in the water and how to use the snorkel," she says.

"When you're under water, you have to remember to breathe out to clear the tube before breathing in, or else you'll be drinking a lot of water."

Use Promptly

Use fresh snap beans a day or two after you bring them home from your market if you want them to taste their best.

Reservations Deadline Set For Luncheon

Sept. 7 is the deadline set for making reservations with Mrs. Fred Etzold or Mrs. Marcel Ehrer for the Outdoor Art Club's opening fall luncheon on Sept. 10.

The luncheon honoring the club's only living founder, Mrs. Harvey Klyce, and past presidents, will start with sherry served at 12:30 in the patio preceding the 1 o'clock luncheon.

Something new this year is the "Outdoor Art Communicator," a mimeographed news sheet issued for the first time last week. Its purpose is expressed in a statement by president Mrs. Rodney B. Hartman:

"This little new sheet is being sent to you in order that we will be better informed about the many activities that go on within our club.

"Making arrangements at meetings takes up valuable time from our programs and reaches only a part of the membership. The Outdoor Art Communicator will publish information on current club affairs —Its problems and its accomplishments. Our goal is to bring about better communication between members, committees and officers."

Mrs. John V. Buckley, whose idea it was, is the compiler, and members are being urged to make contributions that are to be placed in a box provided for the purpose.

Bonnie Hubbard's KUPBOARD

FUN WITH FOOD AND HELPFUL HINTS

Holidays for Mother are few—why not have one on Labor Day? You can serve an easy and different meal built around CHUN KING foods—chow mein, chop suey, crisp vegetables, rice, noodles, even the delicate soups for which Oriental cooks are famous. Try the thrifty Divider-Pak cans, with which you can combine meats and vegetables in a delicious casserole.

Whether it's a midnight snack or a whole meal you're making, LINDSAY Ripe Olives add a magical touch. Here's an example: Melt 2 Tb. butter, add 1 cup chopped cheese, heat and stir until smooth. Add 1 Tb. chili powder and stir in ½ cup cream. Heat gently, spread on toast and decorate with big, pitted LINDSAY Ripe Olives—taste that magic?

★ May I suggest one of my new frozen foods for dinner tonight? Bonnie Hubbard's Frozen Broccoli already has won many friends.

It's a convenience to keep some deviled eggs on hand, ready to brighten a salad or take to an outdoor meal or serve in cream sauce as a quick main dish. FRENCH'S Mustard gives them zest; add some when you blend the yolks with mayonnaise. And next time, you make Chicken a la King, stir in a dash of this fine mustard—see how it heightens the flavor.

Into the picnic basket go family favorites—father's fried chicken, Sister's choice in salads, Mother's box of candy. And for the littlest picnickers—what else but SWIFT'S Meats for Babies? Lean meats, cooked to the utmost tenderness, strained fine for tiny mouths, SWIFT'S Baby Meats supply the proteins small bodies need, as well as a savory adventure in eating.

When you're planning a party menu or just an everyday meal—notice how easy it is to say "and green peas"? That's because everyone likes peas. And if you serve GREEN GIANT Peas, you know they're right—tender, sweet, singing with a field-fresh flavor. Heat them in their own juice, add butter and a sprinkle of chopped mint—gourmet peas, in seconds!

"Hot Dog Hearties" is a perfect outdoor dish. Shape 2 12-inch squares of ALCOA Heavy Duty Wrap in a bowl; pour into the pouch thus formed some of your favorite barbecue sauce; add ½ cup cooked rice and a sliced frankfurter; top with grated cheese; seal pouch tightly and heat about 15 minutes on coals. Serve a silvery bag for each guest.

Who threw the chowder on Mr. Murphy's overalls? Well, in the first place it wasn't chowder, it was salad dressing, and in the second place, it wasn't overalls, it was his nice, blue sport shirt. And in the third place—who cares? Not even Mrs. Murphy. She uses WHITE KING D, tne detergent that washes everything. (She buys WHITE KING in the Giant size, saves money.)

"Let's have a picnic!" Chances are, somebody in your family is going to say that some time this coming weekend. So it would be a good idea to make sure there's a full box of CUT-RITE Waxed Paper in the house; foods packed in this convenient, heavily waxed paper are good travelers, holding their moisture and flavor. Picnic food tastes better, when CUT-RITE goes along!

That's all for now! See you next week!

Hutchins-Slevin Vows Traded In San Francisco Church Rite

In a 10 o'clock nuptial high mass at St. Emydius Catholic Church in San Francisco, Kathleen Ann Slevin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Slevin of San Francisco, became the bride of Ashton Leland Hutchins Jr. of San Rafael.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full length gown of white Italian silk fashioned with a portrait neckline appliqued with rhinestones and lace over silk. It featured on obi sash and her full skirt extended in a chapel train. The elbow length veil was held by a pearl coronet and she carried a white missal topped with white orchids.

Phyllis Slevin of San Francisco was maid of honor for her sister. Bridesmaids were Mrs. George E. Slevin Jr. of San Anselmo and Joan Kloehn of Sausalito. They wore frocks of neptune green taffeta fashioned with draped panels. They had matching green shoes and leaf and feathered half hats in green and beige and carried woodroses in an inverted teardrop design.

Ernest Zeiter of San Francisco was best man and ushers were George Slevin Jr. of San Anselmo, and Frank Saxsenmeier of San Francisco.

The bride was graduated from the Star of the Sea Academy in San Francisco and Dominican College. She is a member of the Dominican Alumnae Assn.

The bridegroom, who is the brother of David Hutchins of San Rafael, was graduated from Sacred Heart High School in San Francisco and St. Mary's College. He is employed in the stereotype department of the Independent-Journal.

The newlyweds will reside in San Rafael.

TEENS SAY

Many Times Even The Best Parents Try Our Patience

By VIVIAN BROWN

Families are wonderful comforts but there are times when the best parents try our patience, letter writers would have us know.

Take the perennial doler of funds, Dad. It doesn't pay to incur his wrath and take a cut on the old allowance, but that's one way Dad can get his small revenge with a stubborn member of the household, so a young girl is likely to think twice about crossing the path of the family power, as this letter indicates:

"I am 16 and am going to my first formal party. I am wearing a green evening gown. My father has laid down the law: no makeup. My mother agrees that this is one dress that needs makeup as I have ashen blonde hair, blue eyes and the dress makes me look washed out. A little lipstick and rouge makes all the difference in the world. Dou you think I should pretend to go along with Dad's ideas and put the lipstick and rouge on after I leave home the night of the party, and remove it before I get back home that night?"

It takes a bit of doing to win some Dads over to a point of view, especially when they have preconceived notions about running the family. But it can be done, even when everything seems hopeless on the surface. One thing you might try is this: The night before the party tell Dad you are going to put on a fashion show just for him. Put on the dress, a minimum of lipstick and rouge as makeup. He will probably admire the outfit if it is pretty, and that is the time to sell him on just the touch of makeup you are wearing. I wouldn't consider the other method which is immature. If you know your father well, you should be able to wheedle him to your way of thinking. Most fathers object to the belligerant attitudes of their offspring, but often will listen to reason if one can present a logical argument.

Here's a letter that brings mom into focus:

"My mother wants me to learn to cook, and I have no interest in it, Every night I stand in the kitchen while she tells me the same things over and over. I am not showing much progress because I don't like to cook. I am 17½."

HUMORING MOTHER

You may just as well give in to mother. Some day you will thank her for it, inevitable as it is for the average woman to cook after marriage. You will become much more interested in the project if you learn to do a few dishes well, and then call in your friends for a tasting party. Many a wife tries to recall how mother made some delectable concoction when her husband begins to complain about her culinary prowess, bragging on his mother's doughnuts or apple strudel. Why not ask your mother to teach you a couple of her favorites, sweet potato biscuits, chicken and dumplings, apricot Trifle or some other family recipe, and invite the crowd or a best beau and another couple for a Sunday night buffet. That could be one way to sell yourself on the importance of learning to cook.

"My brother is dating a girl who is just using him to make another boy jealous. I told him but he doesn't believe me. I date the other boy occasionally, and he has told me of this girl's attentions to him."

I'd stay out of it. It could be the boy you date is having a bout with jealousy, too. If your brother is old enough to date, he should be able to make decisions about this matter.

Marin Women

Judith Jane Carlton Weds Brenton Purdom Of Nicasio

San Anselmo's First Presbyterian Church Fireside Room was the setting for the recent wedding of Judith Jane Carlton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Carlton of San Anselmo, and Brenton S. Purdom of Nicasio.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Purdom of Nicasio.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a pink and white sheath with pink veiled hat and matching shoes. She carried a white prayer book centered with a nosegay of pink carnations and lilies of the valley.

The bridegroom also attended Sir Francis Drake. He is the brother of Mesdames Steve Jones of San Rafael, Peter Bechtel of San Anselmo and Lynn and Jennifer Purdom of Nicasio.

The newlyweds will reside in San Rafael.

SERVING ALL OF MARIN COUNTY

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

Make Labor Day Fun Last, Don't Make It Your Last

The Labor Day weekend is coming up. Some of you lucky ones may even be leaving as early as tomorrow for a long weekend of fun which you can make last to next Tuesday.

But be careful to make it last, and not to make it your last. There's a big difference.

Labor Day weekend is usually considered the last fling of the summer vacation season. We hope you have a real fling, but please don't make it your last. Be careful in traffic, in the boat and with fire and firearms.

Thus far in 1959 we in Marin have been more successful in saving lives on our highways than we were a year ago. Unlike our neighboring county, San Francisco, which has had a 60 per cent increase in traffic fatalities, Marin has shown a decrease.

We went completely through August, a month of high highway use by Marin vacationers and visiting tourists, without a single traffic fatality. Our total highway dead for the year as September started, was 13 as compared with 16 a year ago—and last September we killed two more people early in the month.

Bare statistics are impersonal things. It is difficult to relate "13 dead" or "16 killed" with people — living, moving, laughing people.

There is nothing that can be put down on paper which can approach the scream of braked tires on a highway as a car skids crazily into destruction.

Nothing can reproduce the shattering crash as cars meet—or the deadly silence that follows, just for a few seconds. Then the hum of the horror as survivors fight back to realization and help rushes in.

These aren't happy thoughts with which to start a long weekend. Yet if all weekenders would think briefly about the possibility of such consequences, perhaps they would all drive a little slower, or a little more carefully, or with a little more consideration.

If we all did this, perhaps we could end our traffic toll right now—at 13 dead.

'ALL I NEED IS A HANDLE WITH A MAN ON IT'

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Editorial Was In Poor Taste

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Your editorial of Aug. 28 was in poor taste and tone in that part referring to opponents of the proposed new county seat near Santa Venetia.

Your poor taste is evidenced by your use of that detestable and inaccurate term "red herring" in connection with a group of American citizens of good faith and conscience who, in their right, have expressed opinions. They expect and deserve the courtesy of proper and gentlemanly prose in criticism directed at them. As a leader among them I believe an apology from you is in order.

Your deprecatory tone and dark inference are quite apparent in your remark that there ". . . is a concerted effort on someone's part to organize in opposition to the civic center." There is someone behind every organization on earth, and there is certainly "someone" and many others participating in opposition against the "civic center," so called.

There is no mystery in this campaign against the proposed county seat as presently planned. Your editorial "someone" is a business man of honorable standing. He is well advertised. He is above board. And he is not a name caller.

You again resort to your typical deprecatory tone when referring to "postcards." What's the matter with postcards, or the backs of envelopes for that matter.

Many opinions against the so called "civic center" were mailed to the Board of Supervisors neatly done on bond paper and enclosed in neat envelopes, like those in your office. So what! Ideas and opinions count, Mr. Editor, not fancy paper.

You have your opinions. We won't call you foreign-sounding, offensive names because they disagree with ours.

Please accord us the same courtesy.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

By JAMES KELLER

TIME IS WHAT YOU MAKE IT

"With it, all is possible—without it, nothing," he continued.

"The supply of time is truly a daily miracle. You wake up in the morning and your purse is magically filled with 24 hours.

"Time is yours. It is the most precious possession and no one receives more or less than you receive.

"Moreover, you cannot draw on the future. You can only waste the next hour. It is kept for you.

"You have to live on this 24 hours of daily time. Out of it, you have to spin health, pleasure, money, content, respect and the evolution of your immortal soul.

Ponder often on the fact that God gives you only one life to live and that an eternity depends upon it. Time will mean more to you if you do.

"And in doing good, let us not fail. For in due time we shall reap not failing." (Galatians 6:9)

Thanks, O Lord and Master, for granting me so much time for proving my love for You.

ONE YEAR OLD

Federal Education Act Better Than Predicted

By Congressional Quarterly

President Eisenhower in signing the measure into law Sept. 2, 1958, predicted it would "do much to strengthen our American system of education so that it can meet the broad and increasing demands imposed upon it by consideration of national security. . . ."

The act—its passage hastened by Russia's Sputnik—authorized spending federal money for college student loans, science and language teaching, graduate fellowships, and for the testing and guidance of high school students.

SECRETARY OF Health, Education and Welfare Arthur S. Flemming said he was "very happy" over the act's progress in its first year. He said it was a good demonstration of the Administration's philosophy of pinpointing education needs and then doing something about them.

Chairman Lister Hill (D. Ala.) of the Senate's education committee said "at the end of its first year the act is proving more effective and more popular, both with colleges and students, than even its most devoted advocates envisioned."

Rep. Stewart L. Udall, (D, Ariz.), a primary backer of the act, expressed fear that the very success of the act would "create the false impression that repairing the roof leaks is all that is needed to fix up our educational house."

EDGAR FULLER, executive director of the Council of Chief State School Officers, sees the National Defense Education Act standing in the way of some massive federal aid measure like the Murray-Metcalf bill which would have both built schools and raised teachers' salaries.

Practically everyone agreed that the student loan program's popularity astounded even its most hopeful backers. The U.S. Office of Education in fiscal 1959 gave college and universities $30.5 million to loan out to students. The student does not have to start repaying the loan until one year after he graduates. He can borrow up to $1,000 a year and pay it back over 10 years at 3 per cent interest.

IN CALIFORNIA, 80 colleges and universities received $2,925,621 from the federal government for student loans. (College of Marin did not participate.) The colleges put one dollar of their own into the fund for every federal dollar received.

California in fiscal 1959 received $2,429,189 to remodel laboratories and buy equipment for teaching science, mathematics and foreign languages. It received another $74,656 to expand the supervisory activities of the state education agency over the teaching of those subjects in high schools.

THE ACT ALSO authorized the award of fellowships to enable those who wished to go into college teaching to do graduate work. Colleges and universities in California awarded 75 fellowships in fiscal 1959 worth $397,500, by far the largest total in the nation.

Another major program established by the act is the testing and guidance of high school students in order to develop their natural abilities. California received $422,763 in fiscal 1959 under this program. Marin high school districts, including San Rafael, Tamalpais Union, and Novato participated.

Going On Water Wagon Is, In A Way, Like Being Born Again

After more than a quarter century of traveling the cocktail circuit—purely in the line of duty naturally—I find myself spending more and more of my time—by choice—high and dry on the old wagon.

My reason is quite simple. I like the change of view it gives, and am getting to like it more and more.

My initiation into the cup that cheers goes back to the Prohibition days when people sat around in dimly lit apartments gulping home brew out of kitchen pans at 35 cents a pan. It was fun merely because it was illegal. The beer was green, strong enough to curdle all four stomachs of the average cow.

Later, as a cub reporter, it was pure joy to stand at the bar drinking two-for-a-quarter shots of amber spirits of grain while listening to the colorful old-timers tell how life was like in the good old days.

The era of social drinking came in, and the trouble with social drinking is that it isn't really social—and it isn't really drinking.

Barroom camaraderie began to disappear when they took the sawdust off the floor and started admitting women.

A coeducational saloon is like a coeducational barber shop. It is an anachronism, and has no place in an ordered world.

There is another good reason for climbing the wagon. It is more peaceful and restful.

Twenty-five years ago the taverns were inhabited by wise and witty men who said wonderful things in a wonderful way. The conversation in a tavern today is downright boring. All the people there want to do is tell each other their personal woes. The bartender has become a wet nurse and a psychiatrist.

WHAT IS LIFE like to a man still getting used to a high dry perch?

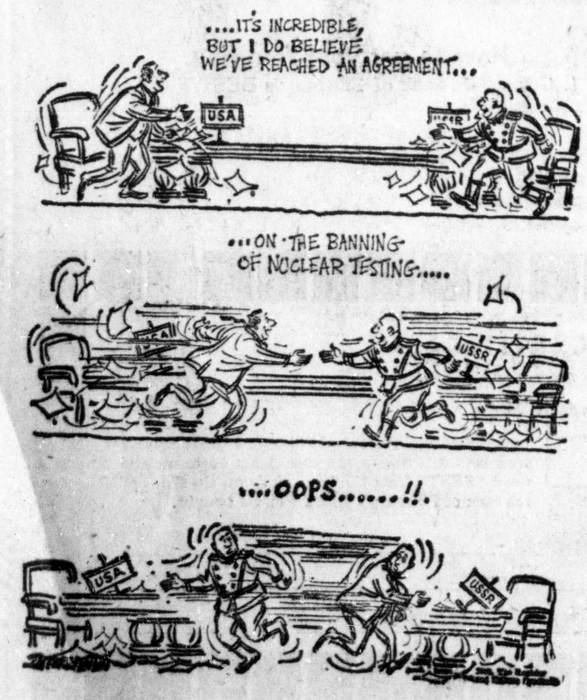

Well, sometimes, he does get a bit lonely for the camaraderie of vanished times, but they are times that vanished years ago. His evening now and then gets a bit monotonous, but he has wonderful mornings.

He goes to bed feeling good and wakes up feeling fine. Life holds a new awareness. He now has time to do all the things he's wanted to do, and he does them. He reads more books, goes to more plays.

IN A WAY, it's like being born again. Nothing is stale. Everything is new, as if he were seeing the world for the first time.

He feels no urge to join a temperance league or take up Carrie A. Nation's hatchet, but he does mildly wonder why in heaven he didn't clamber up the wagon sooner—so he'd have a longer joyride.

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By ROBERT K. NEWCOMB

Going Through Incinerator Can Save Some Things You Might Want

It probably all starts when a boy first stuffs his pockets full of revered relics of a day's adventures. But it never ends.

George Marshall, secretary for Novato Chamber of Commerce, is afflicted with the same insatiable collector's mania that grips us all, but maybe with more persistence.

When he saw a load of old papers dumped in the incinerator at home the other day, he got there before the match was struck. He was grateful he did so.

From the trash heap he rescued a veritable treasure. It was his one and only copy of the program brochure saved from a dinner he attended Sept. 30, 1944 in the concert room of the Palace Hotel.

Still legible are the words: "Testimonial Dinner In Honor of George A. Marshall, Assistant Collector of Customs."

THERE ARE THINGS we take for granted. Take for example the noon whistle.

Would you miss it if it failed to go off? There are those who do when it happens. They call up the fire department in a hurry when it fails to sound, which happens at times when there is an electrical or mechanical failure.

The siren at high noon is a Novato tradition, Fire Chief George Cavallero tells us. There is no written law. In the old days, he recalls, Novatans were alerted four times a day—8 a.m., time to start work; noon, lunch time; 1 p.m., back to work, and 5 p.m., quitting time.

Now everybody over 6 wears a wrist watch and does not need the screaming reminders. But the noontime siren bellows on, and practically nobody asks why.

The daily signal serves a purpose, though. It gives the redshirts a chance to test the equipment that otherwise might go on the blink without anyone knowing it, until it's too late.

WATERMELON anyone?

George Hardwick, owner of Farmer's Market in Novato brought one down from Woodland the other day weighing 73 pounds and appearing big enough to feed the British Navy.

There's an explanation. It grew from a seed brought down from the great State of Alaska, Hardwick was told. Others of the species have been known to reach the 300-pound mark.

"Brings in too many customers," he says.

NO HARM WISHED on anyone. But it was hard to keep from hoping that a couple of masked bandits would walk into Rickey's Restaurant in Ignacio last Thursday afternoon.

They might as well have tried to hold up San Quentin.

Meeting there were about 75 members of the Northern California Safe and Burglery Assn., all law enforcement officers in plain clothes. None of them, we noticed, had bothered checking their firearms at the door.

But for that, and the conversation, you might have mistaken the group for a conference of high school football coaches. They were talking shop:

"He's a three-time loser. Been in for robbery and burglary and is now passing checks in the Bay Area," said one officer from San Jose. "Oh yes," he added—"he's armed with a .38 snub nose and will probably use it."

The purpose was to exchange information on the hoodlums to make the job of tracking them down an easier proposition.

ROSCOE DRUMMOND

Courteous, Correct And Cool Is Way U.S. Public Awaits Mr. K.

It is increasingly evident that the American people are not going overboard in their welcome to Premier Khrushchev. He is not going to be greeted as friend or hero. He is not going to be hailed as the "man most to be admired."

Our welcome will be correct, courteous, and cool. We can well bear in mind Vice President Nixon's suggestion when he returned from Latin America. Occasionally, he said, we may have to shake hands with a dictator when he is an official of another government, but we should reserve our embrace for those who really want freedom and peace.

FREEDOM HOUSE in New York is doing a good thing in publicizing its statement on "What you can do about Khrushchev's visit." It offers this timely reminder:

"Mr. Krushchev is not coming to the United States to offer significant concessions or recant his life-long enmity toward us and our values. He is coming to score a propaganda victory, with confidence in his ability to arouse false hopes, weaken our resolves, and cause us to make substantial concessions. He must not succeed in such a mission."

He will not succeed in this mission if we keep our eye on today's headlines.

NEVER FORGET that the Communist parties outside Russia and China are loyal only to a foreign power. The Communist Third International puts it frankly:

"Every branch and member of the Universal Communist Party is pledged to indulge in national treason in case of war with the Soviets —no matter who, in such a war, should be the aggressor."

Latest evidence: While the Indian Parliament and the Indian people are revolted and alarmed at Red China's conquest of Tibet and at the menacing movement of Red Chinese troops across the frontiers of the Indian protectorates of Bhutan and Sikkim, India's Communist party openly sides with Peking and against India.

NEVER FORGET that when Communists are elected to national parliaments, their purpose is to destroy democratic government, not make it work. I quote from the rules of the Third International:

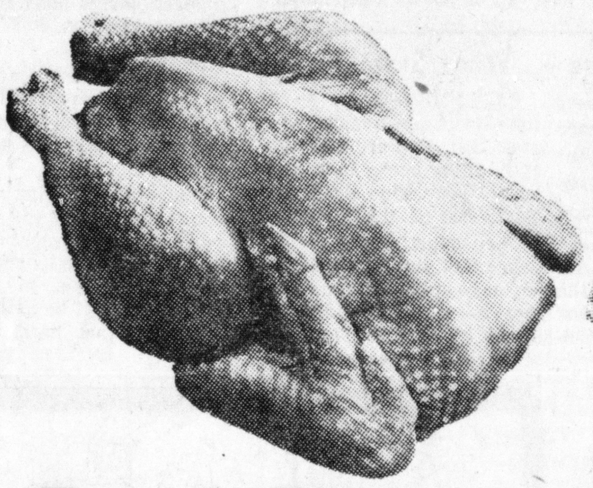

"Communism repudiates the possibility of winning over parliaments. Its aim is to destroy parliaments . . . Each Communist representative must remember that he is not a "legislator," bound to seek agreement, but an agitator detailed into the enemy's camp to carry out party orders."

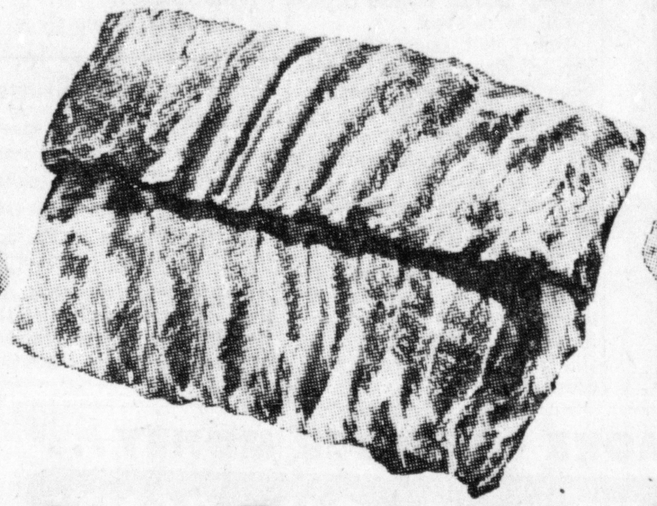

Latest evidence: After the Communists won a majority of three in the state of Kerala in India (because of disagreements among the non-Communist parties) they utilized their powers over the executive, the courts, the police, and the schools, to try to fasten the Communist party onto the government so it could never be shaken loose. The regime became so oppressive that the national government in New Delhi had to dissolve it as the only means of restoring justice and democracy to Kerala.

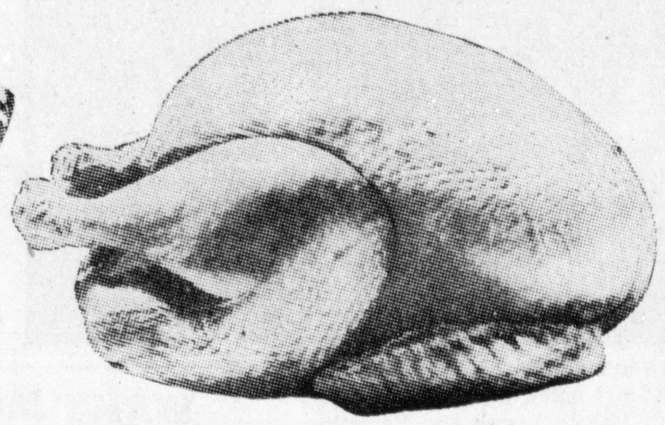

No wonder Khrushchev's welcome will be no more than courteous, correct, and cool.

Metal Trades Union To Join Ship Walkout

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Metal trades workers, already observing machinists and carpenters picket lines, have voted to strike commercial shipyards from San Francisco to Canada next Tuesday.

In Seattle's Puget Sound area, work on four Navy ships was halted by the shut down and premilinary work on a fifth—a guided missile frigate—will be delayed.

Tom Rotell, secretary of the Pacific Coast Metal Trades Council, announced membership rejection by a 3-1 vote yesterday a management offer of a two-year contract providing annual increases of seven cents an hour plus a 10-cent hourly pension contribution.

The council, embracing nine shipyard crafts, is asking a 15-cent hourly increase, retroactive to July 1, 10 cents an hour for pensions after May 1, 1960 and additional 10 cent wage boost July 1, 1960.

WHATEVER IT'S ABOUT, THEY'RE SAFE FROM COMMITTEE WORK

The Tamalpais Valley Improvement Club is urging all its members and new residents of the valley to attend the next club meeting at 8 p. m. tomorrow for "an announcement of great concern and one that has been awaited a long time."

The club put this teaser announcement in the current issue of its bulletin but did not give even a hint of what the meeting will be about.

But the notice does ask members to dress simply.

Just housedresses and jeans, says the bulletin.

No one will say, but the bulletin does have one comforting thought:

Ends Training Cruise

A summer training cruise was completed recently aboard the Pacific Fleet heavy cruiser Helena by Midshipman 1/c Gerald N. Burton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde N. Burton of 1251 San Anselmo avenue, San Anselmo. He is a member of the Naval Reserve Officer Training Corps unit at Oregon State College.

What State Drank

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The state Board of Equalization figures that Californians apparently drank better than 18 gallons of beer, wine and whiskey apiece last fiscal year.

The department disclosed today that during fiscal 1958-59, per capita consumption in the state amounted to 1.6 gallons of hard liquor, 14.6 gallons of beer and two gallons of wine.

Army Drops Rotation Of Troops

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army has dropped its much heralded troop rotation program without any fanfare or even an explanation.

"Operation Gyroscope" — a system of rotating Army units between Europe and the United States—was started with much ceremony in January, 1955. At that time, the 1st Infantry Division in Germany changed places with the 10th Infantry Division at Ft. Riley, Kan.

Later the Army cooled off on the idea of rotating divisions and it limited exchanges to battle groups, battalions and lesser groups.

And, without giving any reason, it announced yesterday it would drop the program. From now on, four-man teams will be trained and sent to Europe, where they will be assigned to companies that need replacements.

Post Office Opens Oct. 1 In Sausalito

The new $85,000 Sausalito Post Office is scheduled for completion and occupancy Oct. 1, it was announced today by Acting Postmaster Dorothy E. Finn.

Mrs. Finn said the original completion date was Aug. 1, but the building was not even started until that date. "We have been told we'll be in and operating on Oct. 1," she said.

The building, at Bridgeway boulevard and Johnson street, will contain 5,000 square feet of space, more than twice as large as the present post office.

A spokesman for the Post Office Real Estate Division in San Francisco said the land cost $23,000, and the building was estimated to cost $58,584 for a total of $81,584. However, he said, the cost would run a little higher because the contractor ran into some soil problems. The post office backs on land leading to Richardson Bay.

The building is concrete masonry construction and will have a glass front.

Dog Blamed In Death

DENVER (AP) — The family dog dragged 11-month-old Stephen Young's stroller into the path of a car yesterday. The child was critically hurt. Police said the dog, whose leash had been tied to the stroller, was chasing a cat.

Fairfax Church Opens Annual Fete Saturday

A spaghetti dinner starting at 5 p.m. Saturday in the Parish Hall will open the 28th annual Labor Day Festival of St. Rita's Parish in Fairfax.

John Caldwell and George Smith are co-chairmen of the three-day festival which will feature nightly entertainment under direction of Fred Baguio on the church grounds. The federation kitchen will be open throughout the festival.

Sam Irvin heads a construction and decoration committee to provide booths, while other booths are to be the responsibility of individuals and organizations.

Rev. Albert T. Duffy is again honorary chairman.

New Diamond Fields Discovered In Liberia

MONROVIA, Liberia (AP) — Rich new diamond fields have been discovered in north central Liberia, it was announced in the Liberian press and confirmed by officials.

The discovery was made in the Sanniquelle district.

FORGET TICKET BUT DON'T SEND ALLIGATOR

Pavia, of Port Arthur, Tex., wrote Justice Maes that one of his reptiles nipped him recently and he was unable to work to pay off a speeding ticket he received here.

"The condition," he told newsmen, "is that the man not send me an alligator."

California's Business At New High

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—California business activity, as measured by Wells Fargo Bank's adjusted index, continued to rise in July to a new high of 251 per cent of the 1947-49 average.

The index rose four points between June and July, reaching a level 12 per cent above that of a year earlier. Expressed in terms of 1947-49 dollars to eliminate the effects of inflation, the index in constant dollars was 210 in July, as compared with 206 in June, and 189 a year ago.

All of the index components, except engineering construction awards, were higher than in the previous month, and all five exceeded their respective July 1958 levels.

State To Install Strip Barrier On Bayshore Freeway

SACRAMENTO (AP)—The state plans to install a ney type of center strip barrier on 1.4 miles of Bayshore freeway.

The barrier, developed in a recent series of radio-controlled crash tests, consists of back-to-back steel guard rails and a supplemental lower rail, attached to wooden blocks and rails.

The Division of Highways announced it will open bids here Sept. 30 for installing the barrier, at an estimated cost of $100,000, between .3 mile south of Third street and .1 mile north of Army street in San Francisco.

Lytton Square Project Starts

An area 12 feet wide and 100 feet long will be planted around the flagpole according to a plan by Sam Newsom of the Greenwood Tree.

Cost of the removal of pavement and erection of exposed aggregate curbing is estimated at $1,000. Merchants may finance planting as soon as curbing and soil have been provided. Planting of redwoods has been suggested.

City Manager A. E. Almcrants said he does not know when the project will be completed.

Larkspur School Luncheon Slated

A luncheon meeting of all teachers, administrators, secretaries and trustees of Larkspur School District will be held next Tuesday at 1 p.m. at Rickey's Rancho Rafael, Ignacio.

Supt. Carl Tivel will address the general session, which will run until 3 p.m. Personnel of the district's three schools will meet in individual sessions from 3:30 to 5 p.m.

Firemen To Meet

The Tiburon Volunteer Firemen's Assn. will meet at 7:30 p.m. today at the Tiburon boulevard firehouse to discuss plans for the Nov. 14 annual firemen's ball, according to president Raymond F. Coombes.

Some Folks Say Shouldn't Push Religion On Youngsters–'Wrong'

Does your church have activities for children? Do your youngsters take part? I hope so. Children need religion.

Some folks say we shouldn't "impose" our beliefs on our kids. Have you heard them? They think we should wait and let our children find their own faith after they've grown. I disagree. That's the way to produce pagans. Children's standards are formed while they're little. Inspiration helps them. Do you want your children to have the moral strength which faith brings? Then introduce them to religion early.

Don't expect your 3-year-old to listen to sermons. He can't. But he can play in a church school. He can bow his head for simple prayers. He can learn that there is a God who cares. That's the most important lesson in life. Your 6-year-old can learn about the Bible. He can try to apply church teachings to his daily life. He can learn to be good. He has reasons for it.

Your teen-ager can find his best social life at church. He can avoid the mistakes many nonchurch gangs make. There have been several studies of teen-age morality. They conclude that only one group of teen-agers is living up to our traditional standards: the church group.

I'm not telling you which church to attend. I am asking two questions. Do you love your children? Do you want them to live good lives? Then raise them in a good church. The church fall programs are starting. Now's the best time of the year to enroll your children. You won't regret it.

(Q) "May we quote you in our church bulletin as saying that parents should bring their children up to be active in church?" —F.N.

(A) Yes. Or you can quote the column you've just read. So can any other church group which would like to use it. I hope it helps!

Today is Wednesday, Sept. 2, the 245th day of the year, with 120 more days in 1959.

The Moon is new.

The morning stars are Mercury and Venus.

The evening stars are Mars, Jupiter and Saturn.

On this date in history:

In 1789, Congress established the Department of the Treasury.

In 1930, two French aviators completed the first non-stop flight from Europe to the United States. Their plane was called the Question Mark.

In 1945, the Japanese signed the terms of unconditional surrender aboard the U.S. battleship Missouri in Tokyo Bay.

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. each day the code letters are different.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Four Perish In Fire

SOUTH GATE (UPI)—A family of four perished today when flames swept their small frame home only three hours after the husband and wife returned from a party celebrating their 12th wedding anniversary.

A baby-sitter said David Sprinkle, 35, and his wife, Bery, 27, returned to their home shortly after 1 a.m. after attending the party. Thelma George, 15, said she had been sitting with the Sprinkle children, David Jr., 6, and Star, 5. All were killed.

Steel Talks Resume

VFW Asks New Fleet

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Delegates to the 60th annual national convention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars were expected to pass without opposition today a resolution calling for the creation of a new Naval feet in the Indian Ocean.

The resolution, which urged that ships for the new fleet be gathered from Naval vessels now in moth balls, was presented yesterday at the five-day convention.

Serves Him Right

Mine Blast Kills 16

SEVILLA, Spain (AP) — Seven bodies were removed today from a coal mine in which 16 miners are believed to have perished in an explosion, 1,500 feet underground Tuesday.

Yes, Pat, It's Real

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The rock on the movie set didn't look real to singer-actor Pat Boone. He kicked it with his bare foot yesterday. It was real. Boone has a broken toe.

Liquor Sales Slow

OKLAHOMA CITY (UPI)—Oklahoma's liquor cabinets gleamed today with the first legal liquor since statehood in 1907 but early sales were surprisingly slow.

If Oklahomans were partaking with increased gusto in the liquor which became legal to sell only yesterday, they did not show it. Police in the state's two largest cities, Oklahoma City and Tulsa, remarked that the day was "just as usual, no different." They reported no more than the usual number of drunks.

TV In Airplanes?

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — A television screen may replace the instrument panel in the airplane of the future, delegates to the Army-Navy instrumentation symposium were told yesterday.

Douglas Aircraft Co. of Los Angeles has two such devices among displays at the symposium.

Sailors Really Shot

Instead of a needle, a medical gun is used to shoot serum into the arm painlessly, the Navy said yesterday.

The gun shoots a jet of serum about the diameter of a human hair. High velocity makes it possible for the serum to penetrate the flesh.

Karl Weds Again

CHICAGO (AP)—Harry Karl, a West Coast millionaire shoe manufacturer, and Joan Perry Cohn, widow of a film magnate, were married last night.

Both Karl and Mrs. Cohn are 45. This is his fourth marriage. He was married twice to actress Marie (The Body) McDonald.

Bite Fatal To Cobra

ST. JOSEPH, Mo. (AP) — Two weeks ago a deadly hooded cobra from India bit a reptile garden snake handler, William White.

Anti-cobra serum was flown here from Miami, Fla., in Air Force jets. White, 32, recovered.

John Flinchpaugh, operator of the reptile garden, said the snake's fangs were loosened when it struck through a heavy canvas bag to bite White. Its jaw was dislocated when White jerked his hand away.

Death was attributed to infection of the injured area. No one seemed interested in trying to reset the jaw.

'Copter Dogfights Seen

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Helicopters will stage dogfights in future wars just like fighter planes did in past conflicts, an Army aviation leader said yesterday.

Brig. Gen. Ernest F. Easterbrook, commander of the Army Aviation Center at Ft. Rucker, Ala., told the Army-Navy Instrumentation Symposium here helicopters will be used increasingly because of their ability to fly low enough to escape radar detection.

Since one helicopter is the best defense against another one, Gen. Easterbrook said, the rotor-driven craft will be armed and used in dogfights.

Would Scrap Clauses

NEW YORK (AP)—Eleven railroad unions have offered to scrap the cost-of-living escalator clauses in their present wage agreements, it was reported today.

But their proposal has brought no acclaim from the railroads, the New York Times said in reporting the move.

The escalator clauses are intended to protect the workers against inflation. Wages are automatically raised or lowered in response to fluctuations in the consumer price index.

Sorry He Called

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (AP)—"Is it against the law to shoot birds with slingshots in the city?" a youthful voice asked police dispatcher Jerry Mathis.

Mathis said it was.

"That's what I thought," the caller said. "I win a 50-cent bet."

"Did anyone ever tell you it's against the law to gamble, too?" Mathis asked.

Las Gallinas To Fete Completion Of Plant

The Las Gallinas Valley Sanitary District is planning to celebrate, with music, the completion of a $245,000 sewage disposal plant project.

Final units of the project, which increases by five times the capacity of the district's sewage treatment facilities, was announced today by Mrs. Annie M. Reagan, secretary of the district.

By way of celebration, the district plans an open house at the plant behind the San Rafael Nike site hill on Sept. 13, with music by the Las Gallinas Valley Sanitary District Non-Marching Band.

The project, financed through a bond issue, provides the district with modern sewage treatments facilities capable of handling one million gallons per day—more than three times the present load—according to J. Warren Nute, district engineer.

Sewage enters a primary clarifier—one of three large round tanks in the installation. From there it passes to a biofilter, then to a secondary clarifier before flowing out into the bay as clear water.

The sanitary district serves Santa Venetia, Marinwood and Terra Linda, including portions of the Freitas Ranch properties recently annexed to the City of San Rafael. (The city has no sewage treatment facilities in the Las Gallinas Valley.) Its plant was started in 1955, and the digester built then is still in use.

Arthur Stahl of San Francisco was the contractor on the big expansion project.

Novato Folk Dancers Sponsor Fete In Rodeo

The Novato Folk Dancers, under the direction of instructor Bernice Schramm, will sponsor a regional folk dance festival in Rodeo Sunday in conjunction with that city's annual bass derby and aquatic festival.

Dancing will last from 1 to 5:30 p.m. at the Rodeo school grounds. Eldon Kane, a member of the Novato group, is in charge of exhibition dance arrangements.

Luncheon For San Rafael's New Teachers

New San Rafael city school teachers will be guests at a luncheon at noon Friday in the San Rafael High School cafeteria, Martin Parlan Jr., president of the San Rafael Teachers Assn., announced today.

The luncheon will be part of a day of orientation for new teachers. About 125 teachers, administrators and school board members are expected to attend the function which is being sponsored by the San Rafael Teachers Assn.

Florence Abraham, dean of girls at San Rafael High School, is chairman for the luncheon. San Rafael High School Girls Cabinet members will be waitresses.

John Muir of the California Teachers Assn. will address the group on field service work and special services offered by the association.

Bay Tube Measure Nears Passage In House, Says Solon

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Rep. John F. Baldwin said yesterday that a bill authorizing use of bay bridge tolls to finance a transit tube under San Francisco Bay has moved closer to passage.

The Martinez Republican told officials of the Bay Area Rapid Transit District that House passage of the measure was expected before Congress recesses.

He disclosed the bill had been unanimously approved by the House Public Works Committee.

Two Polio Cases Head Marin Disease Report

Nine cases of communicable diseases were reported to the Marin County Health Department last week, it was announced today.

There were two cases of polio, both non-paralytic, one of strep infection, three measles and three mumps.

STANFORD'S NEW $22 MILLION MEDICAL CENTER

The Stanford Medical Center, moved to Palo Alto after many years in San Francisco, will dedicate its new 22-million-dollar home Sept. 17-18. Shown here is one of the center's seven buildings (three hospital and four medical school structures) which occupy 56 acres on the Stanford campus. The center was designed by Edward D. Stone, architect of the U. S. exhibit at the Brussels fair, with an eye to functional requirements and harmony with Stanford's famed main quadrangle. Gov. Edmund G. Brown and other dignitaries of the state and medical field will participate in the dedication ceremonies.

Elks Club Plans To Remodel Building

Some remodeling of the interior of the San Rafael Elks Club and expansion of the youth activity program are planned for 1960, exalted ruler Dale Blanton of Marin Elks Lodge 1108 announced today.

Possibility of the dining room being enlarged and remodeled is being discussed, Blanton said. The billiard tables may be moved to a new location.

The Elks' winter bowling league will bowl every two weeks at the new Country Club Bowl in San Rafael, he announced.
